

Swan Neck Splints – Clark Rings

Below is an example of a Swan Neck deformity.

The splint which can be obtained from or made by a hand therapist blocks the extension at the PIP joint.

Example of how to make and wear the splint. Video

If the splints from the Hand Therapist are effective and comfortable then they can be made into more attractive jewellery.

