Catalogue Structure

Reference number	Series/Sub-series
353 1	Certificates Government or quasi-government – mainly re the Roberts and Pietersz families. File/Item titles applied by NLJ. It is not clear why Pietersz family certificates came into WAR's possession; evidence indicates that he was an admirer of J L Pietersz (see 353.2.1.17).
353 2	Correspondence N.B. Most titles have been given by NLJ. Where WAR's titles exist – file covers, envelopes, etc. – these are used and are in single quotes. A previous arrangement- alphabetically by correspondent – by the IOJ/NLJ was reworked. No record of how arranged by WAR. See also 353.7 Postcards – written for further correspondence.
353 2.1	Family and friends Arranged, roughly, chronologically.
353 2.2	Professional/Literary Arranged, roughly, chronologically. WAR's Editorial career (largely from biographical details compiled by CBL after WAR's death): 1911-13 National Sunday Magazine; 1918-21 Ainslee's; 1922 Hearst International; 1923-24 Metropolitan Magazine; 1924-25 Movie Monthly; 1925-26 The American Parade (also Publisher); 1927-28 The Dance Magazine; 1929-30 Brief Stories; from 1953 Pioneer Press (in Jamaica). N.B. WAR corresponded about literary matters with friends as well as with professional colleagues and contacts, a few of whom became long-term friends. Correspondence with the latter are therefore listed under 353.2.1.
353 2.3	Political Arranged, roughly, chronologically.
353 2.4	Historical Arranged, roughly, alphabetically. Includes correspondence re the Jamaica Historical Society, the Institute of Jamaica, the Jamaica National Heritage Trust. Also includes some original material e.g. the Manning-Gideon correspondence, and the D B Sangster papers, that probably came into his possession via his contact with the IOJ and should probably be recorded as separate NLJ acquisitions.
353 3	Journals/Diaries Pages covering a few months, 1912-13, kept by WAR's father; a notebook kept by WAR's maternal grandmother; and one journal kept over decades by WAR.
353 4	Legal Publishing agreements.

353 5	Manuscripts Arranged by type: autobiographical, fiction, non-fiction (history, politics, etc.), poems and poetry, and political. Include reports and papers. Mainly typed but also some hand-written works including composition books from WAR's childhood. Works may or may not have been published. Works are by WAR and others, including his father. N.B. WAR occasionally wrote under the pseudonym, Stephen Endicott. Most manuscripts by WAR are copies and are on poor quality, very acidic paper.
353 5.1	Manuscripts – autobiographical
353 5.2	Manuscripts – fiction
353 5.3	Manuscripts – non-fiction
353 5.4	Manuscripts – poems and poetry
353 5.5	Manuscripts – political
353 6	Photographic Photos and negatives. Includes three framed photos, some signed studio portraits of personalities such as Jack Dempsey, and a number of 19 th century cartes de visite (of mainly unidentified persons). Almost all photos are black and white. Catalogue references to numbers of 'items' refers to number of sub-folders, each of which may contain one or multiple photos or negatives. Number of 'photos' may or may not be listed.
353 7	Postcards
353 7.1	Postcards – written Includes some greetings cards.
353 7.2	Postcards – blank
353 8	Programmes/Events Pamphlets, flyers, leaflets etc. re cultural and political events.
353 9	Research/Notes Appear to have been kept by WAR as background information. Cover historical, political, and genealogical subjects. Include typed and handwritten notes; also some manuscripts (usually partial copies), press cuttings and other material.
353 10	Scrapbooks and Press Cuttings Scrapbooks contain mainly newspaper and magazine cuttings but, occasionally, also include other items. Most scrapbook pages are fragile and disintegrating.
353 10.1	Scrapbooks Arranged, as far as possible, according to WAR's numbering system. Information in brackets, after scrapbook title, is from typed label found affixed to the inside of scrapbook cover

353 10.2	Press cuttings – magazine Mainly works by WAR.
353 10.3	Press cuttings – newspaper Material of interest to WAR, including reviews of WAR's work and pieces about WAR, as well as works by WAR.
353 11	Publications Many volumes. 1. It is possible that a few items might have been acquired from the WIRL. [Recommend checking the NLJ's rare books catalogue for publications that may have gone 'missing' and return.] 2. Books include copies of those written by WAR, about Jamaica, about Pan-American issues. Many are works of a general nature that are not relevant to the archive e.g. books about western art, cats, travel, other countries. [Recommend removing works of a general nature from the archive and disposing of them. These are of marginal value to any study of WAR - a list of the contents of his collection should suffice for the most intent of researcher - and are unlikely to conform to NLJ's acquisitions policy.] Periodicals include journals, magazines, newsletters, and newspapers etc. May have been kept because they contained works by WAR or for other reasons. Official publications includes all types of government publications.
353 11.1	Publications – books and booklets
353 11.2	Publications - periodicals
353 11.3	Publications – pamphlets, leaflets, flyers
353 11.4	Publications - official
353 12	Artefacts Titles applied by NLJ.
353 13	C Bernard Lewis files Mainly created after WAR's death; kept with WAR archive by the IoJ. Includes original IoJ/WIRL Handlist. Most titles have been given by NLJ. Where CBL's titles exist – file covers, envelopes – these are used and are in single quotes.
353 14	Envelopes Envelopes separated from material in the archive. May contain evidence of names and dates of correspondence.
353 15	Original art (and prints) Works by relatives and friends, works produced for WAR's publications as well as works collected by WAR. Includes sketches of WAR.
