

AWARDED MEDAL

The Board of Directors of the Institute of Jamaica at a special meeting held on Thursday evening awarded the Gold Musgrave Medal to Mrs. Edna Manley in recognition of her work in art. The Board expressed appreciation not only of Mrs. Manley's work but also of the way in which she has tried to further Literature and Art in Jamaica and has given much time and energy to helpig a number of Jamaican artists.

NATIONAL LIBRARY OF JAMAICA

Daily Gleaner October 11, 1941