

NEWSLETTER

Dates for your diary

- Preloved Uniform sale 23.10.24
- Bingo 08.11.24
- Non uniform day 22.11.24
- Christmas Bazaar 29.11.24
- Christmas celebration 07.12.24

NEW EVENT!!! SATURDAY 7TH DECEMBER

Eat, drink and be Merry.
A celebration of Christmas.
From Charles Dickens to Slade, a cultural kaleidoscope of festive fun.

Be greeted by the school choir singing carols. Get a drink at the bar and take your seat and get ready to be entertained by Colchester's very own Lord Anthony Roberts performing his legendary recital of , A Christmas Carol.

Then the mood will change. The temperature will rise as DJ Sam Leppard opens his set, playing all your Christmas dance favourites.

In the courtyard street food will be available. Eat, drink, dance and be merry. Doors open 6.15pm.

Entry by ticket only, purchased in advance, available soon!

Please note this event is for grown ups only. Book the babysitter. Tell your friends. Come on down.

Bingo Friday 8 November

Fun for all the family. Bring your own dinner and drinks and come along for your chance to win a selection of prizes, including a grand cash prize. 6pm - 8pm. Tickets available soon!

Preloved uniform sale 23 October

Preloved uniform for sale outside the NSA pavilion from 2.45pm. Bring your outgrown (but good condition) uniform to swap, or items are available to purchase.

Christmas Bazaar 29 November

Father Christmas will be returning to North School and his elves will be manning the stands from 6pm-8pm. Lots of fun activities for all Children and Adults as well as food and drinks available to buy. There will be a non uniform day in aid of the Christmas Bazaar, on 22 November, more details to follow.

*PS If you can spare an hour and would like to help with any of these events, please let the NSA know.