SERVICES

We are a cutting edge, independent media management company specializing in providing search engine optimized (SEO), social media-friendly, brand-focused public relations to the poker industry.

If you have a message and a target audience then you need PR. PR is a constantly evolving artform and is now widely viewed as part of a sophisticated overall content management mix.

In the past, PR was about generating goodwill, and hoping a story would get picked up traditional media, like magazines.

Today, PR is about SEO, backlink strategy, brand awareness, social media conversations, content management, news flow, and fully trackable real-time monitoring.

Don't get left behind in today's multi-platform, multi-media world. Partner with Poker Media Consulting today to get your news at the forefront of leading search engine results pages, and published on the world's most influential poker media websites, magazines, and social media.
