SENATOR RANDY FINE FILES BILL RESTORING GUN RIGHTS TO 18-20 YEAR OLDS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Anna Budko (321) 409-2025

Tallahassee, FL – Today, Senator Randy Fine (R-Melbourne Beach) filed SB 94 to repeal a 2018 provision of state law that stripped the right of 18-20 year olds to purchase firearms from a licensed firearms dealer in Florida.

“When you turn 18, you are eligible to enlist in our nation’s finest fighting forces and are entrusted with a rifle to defend our country,” said Fine. “I believe that if you can use a rifle to protect our nation, you should also be able to purchase one.”

“After the Marjorie Stoneman Douglas School Safety Act passed in 2018, I committed to addressing the inconsistency that allows an 18 year-old to be given a firearm by a parent or purchase one in a private transaction but not from a licensed firearms dealer. Before I leave the Senate, I want to get that done.”
