

Waterfront Dining

By Nancy Bronson

From Ormond Beach to Oak Hill, Volusia County has literally hundreds of waterfront restaurants. Open decks on the river, sky high elegance, oceanfront tiki bars... nothing makes a meal more enjoyable than experiencing the views of dolphins dancing in the water; the sun rising over the ocean, or setting over the river. Summertime is the perfect time to gather a group of friends; head to the beach for a lazy day in the sun, and after soaking up some rays, visit one of our great seaside establishments for a frozen margarita and some fresh seafood. It doesn't matter if you didn't bring a change of clothes, as long as you have your flip flops on, you can eat and drink to your hearts content!
