EDITORIAL OPPORTUNITIES

- PMW invites selected advertisers to maximize their commercial representation within the publication in one of three ways:

1. PRODUCTS AND SERVICES PROFILES

Allocated to selected full-page advertisers, products and services profiles enable organizations to announce new technologies or developments in a one- or two-page illustrated article (space is limited and articles are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis), presented in a comprehensive Products and Services section within the publication.

2. PRODUCTS AND SERVICES DIRECTORY

This section enables advertisers to publish short, sharp press release-style editorials of around 250 words, highlighting product launches, company/personnel changes, etc

3. SUPPLIER INTERVIEWS

A limited number of supplier interviews are available in each issue, providing select advertisers with an opportunity to explore their products and services in greater detail than in a profile article. These interviews also have more prominent positioning within the magazine.

- "PMW IS A GOOD TOOL TO STAY AWARE OF WHAT IS HAPPENING IN OUR INDUSTRY"

Pierre Prunin, head of motorsport, Spark Racing Technology

- "GREAT TOPICS, SERIOUS ARTICLES"

Stephane Helle, principal engineer, McLaren
