

Breath Of Fresh Air

You don't need to leave the country for a great escape. Travel bloggers Tom and Kate Lim (2bearbear.com) simply checked into Village Hotel Changi by Far East Hospitality. They share the highlights of their staycation.

Tom & Kate's Itinerary

- Changi Village board walk, bar-hopping
- Changi Village Food Centre
- Pulau Ubin and Chek Jawa

Our check-in time at Village Hotel Changi was 12pm. Though we arrived a little early, the staff at the reception quickly made arrangements to ensure that our room was ready, all the while maintaining professional service and smiles all round.

We recommend upgrading to the Executive Club Room. You'll stay on the executive floor, enjoy free-flow snacks and drinks at the executive lounge PLUS, rooms with an attached balcony, overlooking the sea! From 6pm to 8pm daily, there's a cocktail session at the executive lounge, with beers, red wine, white wine and champagne. Yes, drinks are free-flow! There are also tapas such as seafood croquette, smoked salmon and satay. So if you add up the privileges, it is actually worth more than the price of upgrade ($50++).

For a staycation to be an excellent one, the swimming pool must come up tops. There are two swimming pools at Village Hotel Changi – great for families with kids and couples.

We made the hotel our base from which we explored the various attractions in Changi: Changi Village, Changi Boardwalk, the Changi Museum, Changi Beach as well as the famous Changi Village Food Centre. From here, we explored the rural sights of Pulau Ubin island and the natural marine bio-diversity of Chek Jawa. A staycation at Village Hotel Changi by Far East Hospitality offers you a great place to start exploring our gems of the east.
