Mrs. Elizabeth Dysart Dies at Age of 85.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dysart, 85 years old, who had been a resident of Des Moines since 1856, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Peebles, 307½ South East Third street. When she settled in Des Moines it was no uncommon thing to see Indians camped around the edge of the settlement. She was twice married and was the mother of nineteen children, only seven of whom survive her. She was no stranger to Indians when she came to Des Moines, having been born in Kentucky, July 6, 1830. Her first husband, G. W. Breedlove, was captured by a band of Indians in that state and held prisoner until ransomed for a small quantity of provisions by his white friends.

Mrs. Dysart's surviving children are G. W. Breedlove, L. W. Breedlove, Mrs. Jennie Zenor, Mrs. Melinda A. Monroe and Mrs. Sarah Peebles, all of Des Moines; Mrs. Matilda McKee of Enterprise, Ia., and Mrs. Rose Overton of Carlisle, Ia. There are grandchildren and great-grandchildren to the number of 132, most of them living in the vicinity of Des Moines.

Four generations were represented at her bedside when she died.

Funeral services will be held at the home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and will be conducted by the Rev. H. A. Morangeopa.
