

Air filled with the fragrance of someone formidable,
From any living or extinct hominid,
Flushed in the range between a moderate orange and russet or bay
With anger or embarrassment,
And inciting radical socio-political change by force.

Having a minute distance or amount, persistently and annoyingly in one's presence—
A distance of such small size or unobtrusive quality as to be hardly noticeable—
And an ovum together with its nutritive and protective envelopes, having the capacity to develop into a new individual capable of independent existence—
Something resembling an egg—
For any of various organs (as of a fish) capable of detecting vibratory motion.
An ear.

A direct object with little or no meaning
Can't audibly discern,
Perceive or become aware,
Or express approval of (Hear! Hear!)
A material or substance of a specified kind,
A mild obsession or phobia,
The state of affairs in general or within a specified or implied sphere,
A particular state of affairs,
An inanimate object (distinguished from a living being),
Nor a spatial entity.

Here and there,
A unit vector parallel to the x-axis (or an 'incomplete')
Forms or has in the mind
That the one who is neither speaker nor hearer is
Not alone in class nor category, having no sibling,
In being a singular unit or thing, preeminently what is indicated,
The same in kind or quality—
That quality being lacking the senses of perception
With regard to the welfare of human- and animal-kind, and of human beings as members of society—
With such an egg in his ear.

Terribly imperceptive.
