CODE OF CONDUCT

1. ATTENDANCE.

- (1) Students are expected to have 100% attendance.
- (2) Relaxation of maximum 20% may be allowed to cater for sickness or other valid reasons beyond the control of the students for which written permission of HoD is mandatory.
- (3) A student whose attendance is less than 75%, whatever may be the reason for shortfall, will not be permitted to appear in the End Semester Examination.
- (4) Under extreme special circumstances, Principal may condone attendance up to 80% on the recommendation of HoD and Dean Academics.
- (5) If a student is continuously absent for a period of TEN days without permission, a notice will be sent to the parents / guardian with intimation to Dean Academics by HoD.
- (6) If a student remains absent continuously for 30 days without permission, his name will be struck off. Such a student may apply for re-admission. The student granted readmission will be required to pay the prescribed re-admission fee and will be governed by Academic Regulations.

2. MAKING UP OF DEFICIENCY IN ATTENDANCE

- (1) The students who are detained due to shortage of attendance in any course of a semester, shall register with their Department for Guided Self Study Course within 30 days from the date of registration in the semester / year. They will be required to pay a fee per course as prescribed by the College.
- (2) Each Department will prescribe "Guided Self Study Course" for the course units in which the students failed or are detained due to shortage of attendance in a semester and arrange counseling sessions for the students on weekends and holidays in the same odd or even semesters.
- (3) Such students will have to attend contact classes as and when scheduled by the Department on weekends / holidays in the relevant semester to complete the package of study for the course designed by the Department.
- (4) The Departments may prescribe term papers / home assignments which the students will submit to their teachers subject-wise within the due dates.
- (5) The regularity in attending the classes and prompt submission of assignments by due date will determine whether a debarred or detained student is permitted to take the reexamination or not. The schedule for regular collection and submission of term paper/home assignments will be announced by the Department.
- (6) Only those who register for Guided Self Study Course and complete all the requirements as prescribed by the Department will be permitted to take the examination in the respective subject when the examinations of such Course Units are conducted on normal schedule along with the next batch of students.
- (7) The Head of Department will give a certificate to the Controller of Examinations in the manner prescribed in Guidelines stating that the student has complied with all the requirements prescribed for making up the deficiency in attendance at least ten days before the commencement of examinations.
