2. FRENCH QUARTER

The oldest part of an old city, the Quarter (as locals call it) is equal parts elegant and gaudy. In this neighborhood of contrasts, Royal Street runs alongside its more famous cousin, Bourbon, and delights visitors with its high-end antiques shops and eclectic stores.

FIFIMAHONYS.COM

Bachelorette groups and drag performers go gaga over this varied collection of brightly colored custom wigs, fashioned in-house. Funnywoman Jennifer Coolidge is a fan.

4. M.S. RAU ANTIQUES

630 ROYAL ST.
504-523-5660
RAUANTIQUES.COM

A veritable museum of painting, jewelry and decorative arts, M.S. Rau is the place to score a Faberge walking stick or a 13-carat sapphire ring.

TRASHY DIVA

829 CHARTRES ST.
504-581-4555
TRASHYDIVA.COM

Evan Rachel Wood wore a dress by this local label, whose designs combine '50s nostalgia and Southern cool, on a recent episode of HBO's "True Blood."

LUCULLUS

610 CHARTRES ST.
504-528-9620
LUCULLUSANTIQUES.COM

This stately emporium of antiques associated with eating and drinking — two of New Orleans' favorite pastimes — includes a collection of copper cookware and absinthe paraphernalia.
