2012 Ultimate Beach House Room Tour

In the storybook coastal town of Rosemary Beach, Florida, an all-star design team crafted a sophisticated seaside retreat.

Front Door

Neat finish: A wider-than-average front door painted Pratt & Lambert's beachy green Coos Bay is a soft contrast to the copper gas-lantern sconces and cedar-shake roof.

Outdoor pavers: Belgard; Outdoor lanterns: Bevolo; Paint: Pratt &

Lambert

Girls' Bunk Room

Get in Line: An angled ceiling rules out traditional second-level sleeping in the girls' bunk, so two lanes of twin beds embrace the room's horizontal space.

Color Block: Solid custom-crafted beds have simple design details, making them perfect canvases for a pop of bright color, like Pratt & Lambert's Hedgerow Mist.

Ready for a Sleepover: Caged lights and a wallpapered starry sky give the girls' bunk and fun and feminine summer camp vibe.

Go the Distance: The long lines of the sea grass runner play up the length of the room, pointing guests to a painted door that leads to a closet.
