

Grow your relationships & market share through commissions

A rep agency is the marketing arm of the manufacturer and critical to their success and building brand awareness in local market territories. They are rewarded for their efforts based on sales volume performance. The more they sell the more they earn. Manufacturers need a way to keep on top of the sales and commissions earned. Enable is the answer.

Why manage commissions with Enable?

- Incentivize sales and purchasing behaviors that help you grow your business
- Gain visibility into commission payments
- Track performance of your rep agencies in real-time
- Extend visibility of agreements to your rep agencies on one platform
- Drive customer loyalty over the long term

Get in touch at hello@enable.com to see how we can help you strategically manage your commissions.