£42pp - 6 options

All our menus are seasonal and subject to changes. Full menus will be provided in advance of your event.

ENTERTAINMENT

Music is at the heart of STEREO. Tunes waft through our speakers from the house band. As the evening progresses, a rotating series of resident DJs and curated one-off artist performances join the mix. Cassius Consultancy is behind the music programming and production company High Scream has created an intimate stage set-up, complete with an L-Acoustics sound system.

We pride ourselves on creating extraordinary events with performances from a curated list of artists. Working alongside our music partners we can provide a range of entertainment options for your party.

Should you already have entertainment in mind, you are welcome to bring them along.

TESTIMONIALS

"Went to STEREO for our 2023 Christmas party and everyone had the best time - people are still talking about it! The food was tasty, the drinks flowed and spoiled for choice with entertainment...the band were out of sight. Totally recommend STEREO for a top night out."

- Vena / Zenith Media, Christmas Staff Party

"The team at Stereo were so helpful and kind to accommodate a morning for us to shoot a new campaign. We needed a location that felt luxurious and theatrical, with a beautiful interior. It doesn't feel like you are in London, which is refreshing! As you enter and walk down the stairs, you get an overview of the whole venue with a real "wow" effect". Would definitely shoot there again if the opportunity arises."

- Justine / Luxury Watch Retailer, Product Photoshoot

STEREO were a dream to work with, from the first meeting to execution it was a smooth and seamless process. The space was perfect for the event with a fully functional kitchen, amazing sound system and dancefloor and the whole team were so efficient and professional.

- Celeste / Alvaro Barrington Studios, Tate Britain Afterparty

"Our party at STEREO was absolutely brilliant, the band was incredible, the food was delicious, the staff were great and everyone had a wonderful time!"

- Anya / Sonia Friedman Productions, Harry Potter & the Cursed Child cast party
