WHAT WE DO

How does Meredith Wealth Planning protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Meredith Wealth Planning collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or give us your income information
- tell us about your portfolio or deposit money
- enter into an investment advisory contract

We also collect your personal information from others, including affiliates and other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
