Meditation of Preparation

Over the years, I have come to realize that the greatest trap in our life is not success, popularity, or power, but self-rejection. Success, popularity, and power can indeed present a great temptation, but their seductive quality often comes from the way they are part of the much larger temptation to self-rejection. When we have come to believe in the voices that call us worthless and unlovable, then success, popularity, and power are easily perceived as attractive solutions. The real trap, however, is self-rejection. As soon as someone accuses me or criticizes me, as soon as I am rejected, left alone, or abandoned, I find myself thinking, "Well, that proves once again that I am a nobody." ... [My dark side says,] I am no good... I deserve to be pushed aside, forgotten, rejected, and abandoned. Self-rejection is the greatest enemy of the spiritual life because it contradicts the sacred voice that calls us the "Beloved." Being the Beloved constitutes the core truth of our existence."

Henri J.M. Nouwen

It is not our differences that divide us. It is our inability to recognize, accept, and celebrate those differences.

★ Call to Worship

This is the season for pools and lakes, for greening grass and growing gardens, for busy hands.

May our hands also be active working in the ground of our faith.

This is the season for absorbing the sun's bright warmth.

May our hearts and minds soak up the wisdom of God's will and ways.

This is the season for launching kites into the breeze.

May our spirits soar free upon the winds of hope yet be tethered by love to the hand of our creator.

★ Choral Call to Worship

We Are Not Alone

Pepper Choplin

★ Prayers of the People

★ Response

Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat three times)

★ Prayer of Confession

And the voice of God comes to us, as it came to Moses long ago by the burning bush:

"Take off your shoes; the earth on which you stand is holy ground, for I have hallowed it with my care and compassion since time began."

Forgive us, O God, when we have eyes and do not see the beauty of your creation; Forgive us, O God, when we have ears and do not hear the wondrous music of heavenly spheres, not to mention the birds beneath our own windows.

Forgive us our poverty of the senses; and the shallowness of our sense of awe; Our misunderstanding of value as we put dollar signs on your other species, even as we destroy them.

Your whole universe, O God, O Creator, is a burning bush. It calls us to turn aside, to pay attention, to see and hear and sense—and to wonder and to praise.

Grant us new eyes, new ears, and newly awakened hearts; to enter into your courts of nature and praise your holy presence here.

Elizabeth Dodson Gray

Hebrew Bible Reading

Genesis 21.8-21, The Message

The baby grew and was weaned. Abraham threw a big party on the day Isaac was weaned. One day Sarah saw the son that Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham, poking fun at her son Isaac. She told Abraham, "Get rid of this slave woman and her son. No child of this slave is going to share inheritance with my son Isaac!" The matter gave great pain to Abraham—after all, Ishmael was his son. But God spoke to Abraham, "Don't feel badly about the boy and your maid. Do whatever Sarah tells you. Your descendants will come through Isaac.

Regarding your maid's son, be assured that I'll also develop a great nation from him—he's your son, too." Abraham got up early the next morning, got some food together and a canteen of water for Hagar, put them on her back and sent her away with the child. She wandered off into the desert of Beersheba. When the water was gone, she left the child under a shrub and went off, fifty yards or so. She said, "I can't watch my son die." As she sat, she broke into sobs. Meanwhile, God heard the boy crying. The angel of God called from Heaven to Hagar, "What's wrong, Hagar? Don't be afraid. God has heard the boy and knows the fix he's in. Up now; go get the boy. Hold him tight. I'm going to make of him a great nation."

Just then God opened her eyes. She looked. She saw a well of water. She went to it and filled her canteen and gave the boy a long, cool drink. God was on the boy's side as he grew up. He lived out in the desert and became a skilled archer. He lived in the Paran wilderness. And his mother got him a wife from Egypt.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.
