Meditation of Preparation

Make your ego porous. Will is of little importance, complaining is nothing, fame is nothing. Openness, patience, receptivity, solitude is everything.

Rainer Maria Rilke

Let go of certainty. The opposite isn't uncertainty. It's openness, curiosity and a willingness to embrace paradox, rather than choose up sides. The ultimate challenge is to accept ourselves exactly as we are, but never stop trying to learn and grow.

★ Call to Worship

Have you ever noticed all the different kinds of clouds that summertime brings? There is something alluring and wondrous about clouds that captures our attention. Perhaps they serve as a way the Spirit speaks through creation to tell us of our God.

Those swift, thin, wispy clouds of an almost-clear day are the Spirit's shorthand announcement of God's grace-fullness and quick-moving love.

The bold rolling storm clouds with dusky-dark and violet underbellies remind us that ours is a God of power and might.

The floating fleece clouds that graze slowly across the sky's blue fields tell us of God's peace.

And the clouds of sunset, rosy orange and golden hearted, proclaim the glory of God.

This is the season of clouds, and perhaps the God who led the people of Israel with cloud by day speaks to us through them yet.

The grandeur of God is all about us. We come to worship the Creator of all.

★ Prayers of the People

★ Response

*Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat three times)*

★ Prayer of Confession

O God, we awaken each day to a world that is habitat for Spirit and humanity, to a world that invites our participation in a complex of holy tasks and relationships, to a world that challenges our faith with both its promise and its pain.

Within this world, your presence is prominent, yet we often miss it out of negligence, ignore it out of willful inattention, or dismiss it out of disbelief. Forgive us.

Grant us, we pray, a sharp spiritual vision that permits us truly to see the real world. Encourage us to dwell in such a world:

A world where the practice of humble service is a valued and noble calling;

A world where commitment to Christ beckons us toward ventures of community and cooperation;

A world where compassion for generations yet to come makes inconceivable our misuse of the earth;

A world where matters of Spirit occupy the place of highest regard.

Inspire us to participate in the mission of doing your will on earth so all persons might know the reality of your love. In Jesus' name.
Amen.

Silence

Words of Assurance

Leader: You are loved. You are forgiven. So be at peace.

New Testament Reading

Luke 4.14-30, The Message

Jesus returned to Galilee powerful in the Spirit. News that he was back spread through the countryside. He taught in their meeting places to everyone's acclaim and pleasure. He came to Nazareth where he had been reared. As he always did on the Sabbath, he went to the meeting place. When he stood up to read, he was handed the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it was written, God's Spirit is on me; he's chosen me to preach the Message of good news to the poor, sent me to announce pardon to prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, to set the burdened and battered free, to announce, "This is God's year to act!" He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the assistant, and sat down. Every eye in the place was on him, intent. Then he started in, "You've just heard Scripture make history. It came true just now in this place." All who were there, watching and listening, were surprised at how well he spoke. But they also said, "Isn't this Joseph's son, the one we've known since he was a youngster?" He answered, "I suppose you're going to quote the proverb, 'Doctor, go heal yourself. Do here in your hometown what we heard you did in Capernaum.' Well, let me tell you something: No prophet is ever welcomed in his hometown. Isn't it a fact that there were many widows in Israel at the time of Elijah during that three and a half years of drought when famine devastated the land, but the only widow to whom Elijah was sent was in Sarepta in Sidon? And there were many lepers in Israel at the time of the prophet Elisha but the only one cleansed was Naaman the Syrian." That set everyone in the meeting place seething with anger. They threw him out, banishing him from the village, then took him to a mountain cliff at the edge of the village to throw him to his doom, but he gave them the slip and was on his way.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Moment of Silence

We are not afraid to entrust the American people with unpleasant facts, foreign ideas, alien philosophies, and competitive values. For a nation that is afraid to let its people judge the truth and falsehood in an open market is a nation that is afraid of its people. [February 26, 1962]
