★ Call to Worship

Gracious God, we give our thanks this morning for the entire world, formed by your creative Spirit without boundary lines between nations, without prejudices between peoples, without divisions between what is ours and what is yours.

Grant us, as we look upon the inhabitants and the events of this Earth, a sense of all-embracing love.

Fill us with a courage to face the problems we see, a caring that moves us to action, a cooperativeness that opens up the prospect of genuine peace.

Shape your church into a model of unity and spiritual energy.

Let this be a place where connections get made, connections internal and interpersonal.

Help us to identify our needs and to hold them before you, to form our relationships around a commitment to serve you, to profess primary allegiance to you through every word and deed.

Inspire us and enable us to be whole as individuals and as a community.

Urge us to integrate our abilities with our dreams, so that hopes not only draw forth our devotion but truly take form in our lives.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

★ Prayers of the People

★ Response

*Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat three times)*

★ Prayer of Confession

Creative God, Weaver of the fabric of life, we thank you for its texture and beauty, its versatility and durability.

We confess that sometimes we fashion life into forms that do not please you and that fit us badly.

The fabric is pulled and torn and made ugly through our own misuse, yet our complaints are all too often directed toward you. Forgive us.

Fill us with a skillful and energetic faith that enables us to receive the portions of life we are given and to sew them together according to the pattern of your will.

Allow us to be clothed with spirits of light and love and truth.

How grateful we are for the life that you bid us to put on and to wear well.

Accept our thanks in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Words of Assurance

Leader: You are loved. You are forgiven. So be at peace.

New Testament Reading

1 Peter 2.1-10, The Message

So clean house! Make a clean sweep of malice and pretense, envy and hurtful talk. You've had a taste of God. Now, like infants at the breast, drink deep of God's pure kindness. Then you'll grow up mature and whole in God. Welcome to the living Stone, the source of life. The workmen took one look and threw it out; God set it in the place of honor. Present yourselves as building stones for the construction of a sanctuary vibrant with life, in which you'll serve as holy priests offering Christ-approved lives up to God. The Scriptures provide precedent: Look! I'm setting a stone in Zion, a cornerstone in the place of honor. Whoever trusts in this stone as a foundation will never have cause to regret it. To you who trust him, he's a Stone to be proud of, but to those who refuse to trust him, The stone the workmen threw out is now the chief foundation stone. For the untrusting it's . . . a stone to trip over, a boulder blocking the way. They trip and fall because they refuse to obey, just as predicted. But you are the ones chosen by God, chosen for the high calling of priestly work, chosen to be a holy people, God's instruments to do his work and speak out for him, to tell others of the night-and-day difference he made for you—from nothing to something, from rejected to accepted.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Moment of Silence

People think dreams aren't real just because they aren't made of matter, of particles. Dreams are real. But they are made of viewpoints, of images, of memories and puns and lost hopes."

2. We encourage everyone to be connected. We seek connection through small groups that offer opportunities for fellowship, for deeper relationships, and for developing our faith. Because of the growing number of these groups, new members will find ready opportunity for becoming involved and making friends.
3. We sustain the financial health of our congregation. We are mindful of the financial well-being of our congregation; we ensure that the buildings housing our ministries are maintained and preserved, and the programs and staff supporting our ministry are fully funded.
4. We nurture lay involvement and empower leadership. We are purposeful in encouraging members to undertake their individual calls to ministry and in helping them prepare for involvement and leadership.
5. We exist and minister in the name of God in Christ. We are distinctively Christian and seek to follow Jesus as Lord.
