Meditation of Preparation

Wonder is the beginning of wisdom.

Socrates

Almost the entire world is asleep. Those who are awake live in constant amazement.

Tom Hanks, Joe vs. the Volcano

It is the heart that is not yet sure of its God that is afraid to laugh in God's presence.

* Call to Worship

O one who laughs at the incongruity of life and human nature, name us not Mara, which means Bitterness, but name every one of us Laughter, for we laugh at the incongruity of our frail, fallible, gullible selves formed in the image of You.

Laugh us to light-hearted life in the Spirit so that we are able to face and endure times of sacrifice and doubt.

Sustain us in the tradition which our matriarchs have established. May we live by their vision and move with their strength, now and forever. Amen.

* Prayers of Thanksgiving

* Response

Christ Be Our Light

Refrain

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the dark-ness.

Christ, be our light! Shine in your church gath-ered to-day.

* Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Hebrew Bible Reading

Genesis 18.1-15, The Schocken Bible

Now YHWH was seen by him by the oaks of Mamre as he was sitting at the entrance to his tent at the heat of the day. He lifted up his eyes and saw: here, three men standing over against him. When he saw them, he ran to meet them from the entrance to his tent and bowed to the earth and said: My lords, pray if I have found favor in your eyes, pray do not pass by your servant! Pray let a little water be fetched, then wash your feet and recline under the tree; let me fetch (you) a bit of bread, that you may refresh your hearts, then afterward you may pass on—for you have, after all, passed your servant's way! They said: Do thus, as you have spoken. Avraham hastened into his tent to Sara and said: Make haste! Three measures of choice flour! Knead it, make bread-cakes! Avraham ran to the oxen, he fetched a young ox, tender and fine, and gave it to a serving-lad, that he might hasten to make it ready; then he fetched cream and milk and the young ox that he had made ready, and placed it before them. Now he stood over against them under the tree while they ate. They said to him: Where is Sara your wife? He said: Here in the tent. Now he said: I will return, yes, return to you when time revives, and Sara your wife will have a son! Now Sara was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him. And Avraham and Sara were old, advanced in days, the way of women had ceased for Sara. Sara laughed within herself, saying: After I have become worn, is there to be pleasure for me? And my lord is old! But YHWH said to Avraham: Now why does Sara laugh and say: Shall I really give birth, now that I am old? Is anything beyond YHWH? At that set-time I will return to you, when time revives, and Sara will have a son. Sara pretended (otherwise), saying: No, I did not laugh. For she was afraid. But he said: No, indeed you laughed.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Moment of Silence

If you think about it, we get robbed of the mystery of being alive. I think we get robbed of the glory of it because we don't remember how we got here. When you get born, you wake up slowly to everything. From birth to 26, God is slowly turning on the lights, and you are groggy and pointing at things, and say "Circle," and, "Blue," and, "Car," and, "Sex," and then, "Job," and, "Healthcare". The experience is so slow, you could easily come to believe life isn't that big of a deal, that life isn't staggering. Life IS staggering, and we are just too used to it.

When death comes
Like the hungry bear in autumn;
When death comes and takes all the bright coins from his purse

To buy me, and snaps the purse shut;
When death comes
Like the measles-pox

When death comes
Like an iceberg between the shoulder blades,

I want to step through the door full of curiosity, wondering:
What is it going to be like, that cottage of darkness?

And therefore I look upon everything
As a brotherhood and a sisterhood,
And I look upon time as no more than an idea,
And I consider eternity as another possibility,

And I think of each life as a flower, as common
As a field daisy, and as singular,

And each name a comfortable music in the mouth,
Tending, as all music does, toward silence,

And each body a lion of courage, and something
Precious to the earth.

When it's over, I want to say all my life

I was a bride married to amazement.
I was the bridegroom, taking the world into my arms.

When it's over, I don't want to wonder

If I have made of my life something particular, and real.

I don't want to find myself sighing and frightened,

And full of argument.

I don't want to end up simply having visited this world.
