Meditation of Preparation

In every community, there is work to be done.
In every nation, there are wounds to heal.
In every heart, there is the power to do it.

Marianne Williamson

Imagine how our own families, let alone the world, would change if we vowed to keep faith with one another, strengthen one another, look for and accentuate the virtues in one another, and speak graciously concerning one another. Imagine the cumulative effect if we treated each other with respect and acceptance, if we willingly provided support. Such interactions practiced on a small scale would surely have a rippling effect throughout our homes and communities and, eventually, society at large.

★ Call to Worship

Spirit God, in the beginning you gave life and movement, color and harmony to the universe.

Everything moves by your power and is one through you.
But most of all you move in the minds and spirits of women and men.

You give vision and insight, speaking spirit to spirit.

You stir the sleeping conscience, rouse the dormant mind, to seek justice, express beauty, declare truth.

Most of all you come in the power of Jesus, bringing love and joy and peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.

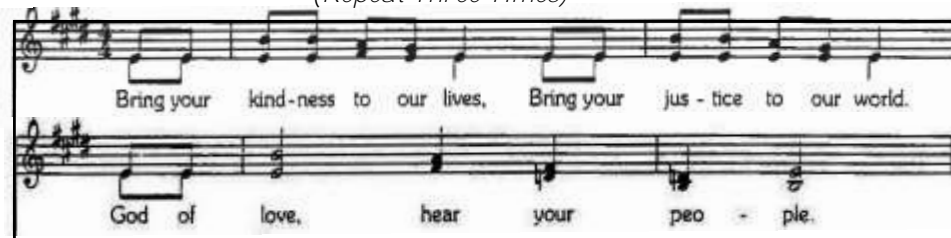

So move us now in mind and conscience; stir and quicken us with beauty and truth;

And give us all your harvest, now and always. Amen.

★ Response

Bring Your Kindness
(Repeat Three Times)

Bring your kind-ness to our lives, Bring your jus-tice to our world.
God of love, hear your peo-ple.

New Testament Bible Reading

John 11.32-44, NRSV

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." ³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Children's Sermon

Walt Pickard

Children ages 3 through 4th grade are invited to come to the front for the children's sermon. Afterwards, children aged 3 may go to the toddlers' room, children ages 4 through 1st grade may leave for children's worship (room 110), 2nd graders and older may return to their seats.

Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Sermon

Piece By Piece

Chelsea Yarborough

Moment of Silence

I mostly want to remind her of the recipes of healing, and give her my own made-on-the spot remedy for the easing of her pain. I tell her, "Get a pen. Stop crying so you can write this down and start working on it tonight." My remedy is long. But the last item on the list says: "When you wake up and find yourself living someplace where there is nobody you love and trust, no community, it is time to leave town – to pack up and go (you can even go tonight). And where you need to go is any place where there are arms that can hold you, that will not let you go."

Offertory

One of the marvelous things about community is that it enables us to welcome and help people in a way we couldn't as individuals. When we pool our strength and share the work and responsibility, we can welcome many people, even those in deep distress, and perhaps help them find self-confidence and inner healing

WE NEED YOUR TRUNK (or TABLE)!

This year our party will feature games provided by YOU! Decorate the trunk of your car, a card table, or a parking space with a game the children can enjoy. If you are unable to provide your own candy, we will have a supply you can use. Please call the church office to let Annette and Lin know you plan to provide a game -336.273.1779. If you have other questions, please contact linbunce@gmail.com.

AND BRING A DESSERT!

One of our contests is for best Halloween dessert. Create the creepiest, silliest, grossest or most pumpkin-y dessert and bring it to share. Have desserts prepared in a way that they can be served in individual portions, (ex. cupcakes rather than whole cakes).

CANDY DONATIONS

When you are shopping this week, pick up an extra bag of candy to donate to the Halloween Party. You can leave your candy donation in the boxes in the parking lot entrance and at the back of the sanctuary.

Creation Care Consideration

To save on paper, please consider viewing our bulletins on your mobile device, posted weekly under Media on the College Park website: collegeparkchurch.com or scan this QR code.

Remember, plastic is the enemy of the environment. Whenever possible, don't use plastic because it never breaks down. A good start is to use glass bottles instead of plastic bottles and bring your own reusable bag to the grocery store so you don't use their plastic bags.

Participating at College Park Church

Take a few minutes to complete our annual survey (insert) or online: www.collegeparkchurch.com (scan the QR code) to let us know how you would like to serve in 2019! Deadline is TODAY.
