Meditation of Preparation

Listen. Slide the weight from your shoulders and move forward. You are afraid you might forget, but you never will. You will forgive and remember.

Barbara Kingsolver, The Poisonwood Bible

The weak can never forgive. Forgiveness is the attribute of the strong.

Mahatma Gandhi

Forgiveness is not an occasional act; it is a constant attitude.

★ Call to Worship

Loving God, we give you thanks for this season of the year, a time when the air is filled with sounds and wings, when ponds ripple in response to springtime breezes and movements of feeding fish,
when the scent of soil reminds us of its fertile warmth, when streams react to sudden showers with quickened pace and flow.

In this season, we feel the power of renewal.

And we pray that our spirits may fill with this power as you graciously provide it, reveal it, and nurture it within us.

Grant us the wisdom to identify Christ as the One who indeed empowers us, not only from one season to another, but for all eternity.

When we are beset by problems that hover about us like gnats, enable us to cope.

When we are troubled by pains that seem as persistent as weeds, strengthen us with patience.

When we are congested in spirit by sins as potent as pollen, help us to inhale freely your wisdom and grace.

Loving and powerful God, renew our lives. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray.
Amen.

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

In The Midst of New Dimensions

NEW DIMENSIONS

GROW

New Testament Reading Colossians 3.12-15, Matthew 18.21-22 The Message

So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It's your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it. Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness.

At that point Peter got up the nerve to ask, "Master, how many times do I forgive a brother or sister who hurts me? Seven?" Jesus replied, "Seven! Hardly. Try seventy times seven."

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Anthem

In Speechless Prayer and Reverence

words: Ellen J. Glover

music: Chrétien Urhan, arr: Katherine K. Davis

In speechless prayer and reverence, Dear Lord, I come to Thee;
My heart with love Thou fillest, Yea, with humility.
My bread and wine Thou art. With Thee I hold Communion.
Thy presence healeth me, Thy presence healeth me.

To do Thy will is greater than sacrifice can be;
O give me needed courage Sweet with sincerity.
From earthly thought released, In speechless prayer and reverence,
Dear Lord, I come to Thee, Dear Lord, I come to Thee.

Children's Sermon

Wayne Jones

Children ages 3 through 4th grade are invited to come to the front for the children's sermon. Afterwards, children aged 3 may go to the toddlers' room, children ages 4 through 1st grade may leave for children's worship (room 110), 2nd graders & older may return to their seats.

Prayer of Confession

Jana Dye

God of all seasons, with the coming of spring we anticipate a time of fullness: skies full of shower-clouds and northbound birds, streams full of eagerly moving waters, buds awaiting the transition to a fullness of flower or leaf. We come to you as people needing a springtime of Spirit. We note our feelings of emptiness brought on by sorrows or depression. Grant us the Spirit that soars and moves and blooms. We confess our use of empty words and empty promises in relation to you and to our sisters and brothers. Forgive us, and by the power of your love, clear a space within us as a seedbed where your Spirit can grow. We offer our prayer in Christ's good name. Amen.

Moment of Silence

Doxology 27

LASST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below; O praise God! Alleluia!
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.
O praise God, O praise God! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

★ Recognition of New Members

*In response to your decision, we pledge ourselves to be the family of God for you in this place. We offer you our love, our care, our kinship and our hopes. We hope to learn from you, give to you and receive from you, by God's grace.
Thank God you are here!

* Response O Christ, Surround Me Richard Bruxvoort Colligan

God, be the love to search and keep me, God, be the prayer to move my voice,
Christ in the eyes of all who see me, Christ in the ears that hear my voice,
God, be the strength to now up-hold me: O Christ, sur-round me; O Christ, sur-round me.
Christ in the hearts of all who know me:

Depart in Peace

As I walked out the door toward the gate that would lead to my freedom, I knew if I didn't leave my bitterness and hatred behind, I'd still be in prison.

Go Plastic Free!

Choose to refuse single-use plastic. Plastics don't break down in the environment, so they are here to stay. You can help! When you get takeout, tell your server you don't need plastic straws, cups, bags or silverware.

March 31 – Combined Service & Matching Offering

Next Sunday, March 31, we will have our first combined service of the year. Join us for worship at 10:30 am in the sanctuary. Sunday School classes will meet at 9:30 am. Our worship will reflect both our Tessera and Mosaic Traditions. The offering we collect will be generously matched by an anonymous family within the congregation and we will conclude with a time of fellowship and refreshment in the chapel.

Adult Choir

Adult Choir rehearsals are Wednesday evenings from 7:30pm-9:00pm. Please see Christian McIvor if you're interested or feel free to just come to rehearsal!

Bible 101 – Reading through the Bible

The Bible 101 Adult Sunday School class is reading through the book of Judges. The class meets on Sundays at 10am in Room 305. You are welcome to join us as we journey through the scriptures.

Piano Recital

Nancy Revzen will present a piano recital in the sanctuary on Sunday, March 31st at 2pm. The program will be very interesting and diverse, including selections by Bach, Mozart, Schubert, Brahms, Debussy, Gershwin, Villa Lobos, and Chopin. Nancy will announce her selections from the stage and provide some interesting background information. The concert is free and open to the public.

Women of Valor

The Women of Valor's new book, Original Blessing by Danielle Shroyer, is available for pick up. The next meeting will be Tuesday, April 23, 6:30pm at Lisa Elkins' home. Please bring a snack to share.

Mostly Men's Occasional Book Club

The Mostly Men's Occasional Book Club's new book, Dodge City by Tom Clavin, is now available for pick up. The next meeting will be Tuesday, April 30, 6:30pm

The Sycamore

In the place that is my own place, whose earth I am shaped in and must bear, there is an old tree growing, a great sycamore that is a wondrous healer of itself.

Fences have been tied to it, nails driven into it, Hacks and whittles cut in it, the lightning has burned it

There is no year it has flourished in that has not harmed it. There is a hollow in it that is its death, though its living brims whitely at the lip of the darkness and flows outward. Over all its scars has come the seamless white of the bark. It bears the gnarls of its history healed over. It has risen to a strange perfection in the warp and bending of its long growth. It has gathered all accidents into its purpose. It has become the intention and radiance of its dark face.

It is a fact, sublime, mystical and unassailable. In all the country there is no other like it. I recognize in it a principle, an indwelling the same as itself, and greater, that I would be ruled by.

I see that it stands in its place, and feeds upon it, and is fed upon, and is native, and maker.

Announcements Continued

Jazz: America's Music of Freedom

This spring, in collaboration with the UNCG Miles Davis Jazz Studies Program, we will be offering a monthly recital series called "Jazz: America's Music of Freedom." Jazz originated in African-American communities of New Orleans as both expression and resistance in response to oppression and racism in the late 19th to early 20th century. Concerts will be held in Forest Chapel at 1pm on fourth Saturdays from February through April (2/23, 3/23, 4/27).

Movie Night - An Invitation for Food, Film, and Fellowship on March 22

Lexi and John Eagles, Alice Stewart, and Charlie Wilson invite you to a potluck dinner and Movie Night at Alice and Charlie's house on Friday, March 22 @ 6:30pm. We will be watching First Reformed, a film which was nominated for an Oscar for best screenplay. Address: 21 Piccadilly Circle All are welcome!

Tai Chi

Join us for beginner Tai Chi in the Chapel, Thursdays at 6:00pm. It's never too late to start, and Tai Chi's emphasis on "letting go" reflects the "unbind" theme for Lent. Come, free yourself through gentle, flowing movement!

Ultimate Frisbee

Ready to get out and run? Join us for ultimate Frisbee on Monday nights, 6:00pm, at Lake Daniel Park (1856 Mimosa Dr). No experience necessary. Bring a red shirt, a white shirt, and some water. You can find us on Facebook at "College Park Frisbee."

Vagina Monologues - March 30 at 7pm

College Park is hosting Red4NC's Vagina Monologues on March 30. The Vagina Monologues is an episodic play written by Eve Ensler that introduces a wildly divergent gathering of female voices and experiences around sex, sexual abuse, body image, and culture. Cost is $15 per ticket. All profits from this performance will go to the Hattie Lee Burgess House for domestic partner abuse located in Davidson County. Purchase tickets at red4nc.org.

Priorities of Our Church

1. We serve our community. We actively work for the benefit of our community; we are known for seeking Greensboro's welfare, both as a congregation and as individuals.
2. We encourage everyone to be connected. We seek connection through small groups that offer opportunities for fellowship, for deeper relationships, and for developing our faith. Because of the growing number of these groups, new members will find ready opportunity for becoming involved and making friends.
3. We sustain the financial health of our congregation. We are mindful of the financial well-being of our congregation; we ensure that the buildings housing our ministries are maintained and preserved, and the programs and staff supporting our ministry are fully funded.
4. We nurture lay involvement and empower leadership. We are purposeful in encouraging members to undertake their individual calls to ministry and in helping them prepare for involvement and leadership.
5. We exist and minister in the name of God in Christ. We are distinctively Christian and seek to follow Jesus as Lord.
