Meditation of Preparation

Children who are not encouraged to do, to try, to explore, to master, and to risk failure, often feel helpless and inadequate. Over-controlled by anxious, fearful parents, these children often become anxious and fearful themselves. This makes it difficult for them to mature. Many never outgrow the need for ongoing parental guidance and control. As a result, their parents continue to invade, manipulate, and frequently dominate their lives.

Susan Forward, Toxic Parents

The prospect of mere failure does not terrorize a person with grand dreams.

★ Call to Worship

God, confront us in this time of worship.
Confront us with the fears we hold so tightly, the favorite sins to which we cling.
Confront us with our closedness.
Knock at all the locked doors of our heart.
Do not let us rest until you gain entrance.
Tell us the painful truth about ourselves, that we might receive the truth of Christ –
the very truth that will set us free. Amen

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven: The hallowing of your name echoes through the universe; The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world; Your heavenly will be done by all created beings; Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth. With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trial too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

New Testament Reading

Luke 8.22-25
The Message (MSG)

One day he and his disciples got in a boat. "Let's cross the lake," he said. And off they went. It was smooth sailing, and he fell asleep. A terrific storm came up suddenly on the lake. Water poured in, and they were about to capsize. They woke Jesus: "Master, Master, we're going to drown!" Getting to his feet, he told the wind, "Silence!" and the waves, "Quiet down!" They did it. The lake became smooth as glass. Then he said to his disciples, "Why can't you trust me?" They were in absolute awe, staggered and stammering, "Who is this, anyway? He calls out to the winds and sea, and they do what he tells them!"

For the word of God in scripture, for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Depart in Peace

The strategy of fear is to convince us that we are underestimating it so that we will fall prey to the paralysis of overestimating it.

2018/2019 School Year BackPack Ministry Recap

As part of its Ministry Program, College Park partners with BackPack Beginnings to help with food distribution to needy students at Peck Elementary during the school year. There are two groups of volunteers that help with this: the runners who pick-up and deliver the food to the school on Thursdays, and the classroom distributors that help on Fridays. In 40 deliveries, our volunteers delivered 3953 bags to Peck! That figure represents an increase of 1765 bags over the previous school year. A huge thank you to runners John Eagles, Jerry Elkins, Jerri and Randy Henderson, Leslie Hicks, Les Lowrance, Kevin Shortt, and Michael Usey, and classroom distributors John Eagles, Jerri and Randy Henderson. If you would like to help with this important ministry or need additional information, please contact Jerry Cunningham, jerrycunningham-so@gmail.com.

Triad Grief-Tending Community meets the last Sunday of the month, from 2-4 PM beginning July 28

Grief can take on many forms, from the loss of a loved one to the sorrows we feel for the world to passed-down ancestral wounds. Grieving in community, through ritual, ceremony, and witnessing, was a component of our human experience in villages and tribes for millennia, but is arguably absent from our present culture of busyness, individualism, and competition. Therefore, once a month we will gather in Greensboro to share our sorrows, to be heard and received in our grief, and to engage in various practices that honor what we carry as sacred and worthy of expression. These practices include movement, writing, ritual, and song. In our coming together, we will be reclaiming some of the "old ways" to nurture soul expression, healing, growth, and connection. In the words of Oscar Wilde, "where there is sorrow, there is holy ground." For more information, please find us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/groups/griefftending/> or contact Samantha DiRosa at 336-549-5175 sdiorosa@gmail.com

Tai Chi

Thursday night Tai Chi is cancelled for the rest of the Summer and will resume in the Fall.

Maybe – by Mary Oliver

Sweet Jesus, talking
his melancholy madness,
stood up in the boat
and the sea lay down,

silky and sorry,
So everybody was saved
that night.
But you know how it is when something different crosses

the threshold — the uncles
mutter together,

the women walk away,
the young brother begins
to sharpen his knife.
Nobody knows what the soul is.

It comes and goes like the wind over the water —
sometimes, for days,
you don't think of it.

Maybe, after the sermon,
after the multitude was fed,
one or two of them felt the soul slip forth

like a tremor of pure sunlight
before exhaustion,
that wants to swallow everything, gripped their bones and left them

miserable and sleepy, as they are now, forgetting how the wind tore at the sails before he rose and talked to it — tender and luminous and demanding as he always was — a thousand times more frightening than the killer sea.
