Meditation of Preparation

Thomas Merton wrote, "there is always a temptation to diddle around in the contemplative life, making itsy-bitsy statues." There is always an enormous temptation in all of life to diddle around making itsy-bitsy friends and meals and journeys for itsy-bitsy years on end. It is so self-conscious, so apparently moral, simply to step aside from the gaps where the creeks and winds pour down, saying, I never merited this grace, quite rightly, and then to sulk along the rest of your days on the edge of rage.

I won't have it. The world is wilder than that in all directions, more dangerous and bitter, more extravagant and bright. We are making hay when we should be making whoopee; we are raising tomatoes when we should be raising Cain, or Lazarus.

Go up into the gaps. If you can find them; they shift and vanish too. Stalk the gaps. Squeak into a gap in the soil, turn, and unlock-more than a maple- a universe. This is how you spend this afternoon, and tomorrow morning, and tomorrow afternoon. Spend the afternoon. You can't take it with you.

★ Call to Worship

Expectant God, teach us in this time of worship the lessons of waiting. Calm our restless hands so we may learn deeply the ways of quiet preparation. Help us know the wisdom of being faithful in your presence. Waiting God, grant that we learn to live with our questions rather than demanding instant answers. Guide us to live in peace with what we cannot understand, and your abundant promises, soon to be fulfilled. Indwelling God, fill our hearts with your love that we may offer praise befitting your holiness. Strengthen us that all we do and say, all we think and feel, will be avenues of your praise- one great magnificat of love lifted to you. All this we pray in the name of the coming Christ. Amen.

★ Prayer for the World & Unison Response

We are not alone. We live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

New Testament Reading

Mark 10:46-52 The Message (MSG)

They spent some time in Jericho. As Jesus was leaving town, trailed by his disciples and a parade of people, a blind beggar by the name of Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, was sitting alongside the road. When he heard that Jesus the Nazarene was passing by, he began to cry out, "Son of David, Jesus! Mercy, have mercy on me!" Many tried to hush him up, but he yelled all the louder, "Son of David! Mercy, have mercy on me!" Jesus stopped in his tracks. "Call him over." They called him. "It's your lucky day! Get up! He's calling you to come!" Throwing off his coat, he was on his feet at once and came to Jesus. Jesus said, "What can I do for you?" The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see." "On your way," said Jesus. "Your faith has saved and healed you." In that very instant he recovered his sight and followed Jesus down the road.

For the word of God in scripture,
for the word of God among us,
for the word of God within us,
Thanks be to God.

Doctor (Jesus), My Eyes

Michael Usey

Moment of Silence

There are things you can't reach. But

You can reach out to them, and all day long.

The wind, the bird flying away. The idea of god.

And it can keep you busy as anything else, and happier.

I look; morning to night I am never done with looking.

Looking I mean not just standing around, but standing around

As though with your arms open.

Mary Oliver

GIVE

★ Hymn: Jesus, Have Mercy!

BUNESSAN 5.5.5.4 D ("Morning Has Broken")

"Jesus, have mercy! Help! Son of David!"
So Bartimaeus called to the Lord.
Filled with great faith, he knew as he waited:
Christ was his hope for vision restored.

Jesus, have mercy when we're uncertain,
Hiding our talents high on our shelves.
As we've been blessed, may we be an offering —
Healing your world by giving ourselves.

Jesus, have mercy! May we give freely
So that the church has plenty to share.
May we bring tithes and offerings gladly,
Reaching to those in need everywhere.

Jesus, have mercy! Give us new vision;
Show us new ways to build up your church.
We are your people, called into mission!
Help us to bring your hope to the earth.

★ Offertory Prayer

★ Recognition of New Members

Sunday Announcements

Creation. Care. Consideration.
 Switch to LED light bulbs. They do cost more than conventional light bulbs, but the benefits outweigh the cost. They use 25-85% less energy, last 3-25% longer, and are much better/safer for the environment. When replacing your bulbs, start with the lights that you use the most.

Mostly Men's Occasional Book Club

The Mostly Men's Occasional Book Club's new book, News of the World by Paulette Jiles, is now available for pick up. The next meeting date is Tuesday, October 1 at Fat Dogs.

Toddlers: Our 2 and 3 year olds participate in music, games and crafts as they begin exploring their world. Our goal is that they experience the joy and love that come from being part of the family of God. These children participate in the Angel Choir weekly at the beginning of their class, led by Lisa Elkins.

Teachers: Dara Edwards and Nancy Schloss

Pre-K and Kindergarteners: Our 4 and 5 year olds begin learning the stories of our faith through music, games and art projects. Our goal is that they begin to understand the love that God and their church family has for them. These children also participate in the Angel Choir with Lisa Elkins at the beginning of their class each week.

Teachers: Kari Baumann, Caroline Joyce and Terri Ramsey

1st and 2nd graders: Our 6 and 7 year olds continue learning the stories of our faith each week, exploring God's world and how God acts through God's people. This is also a very active class, with hands-on activities, games, art, science and music.

Teachers: Allison Blay and Walt Pickard

3rd through 5th graders: Our upper elementary students begin to study the stories of Jesus in a deeper way, gaining a vision of how God wants God's people to treat each other and the world. These students also begin developing Bible literacy skills, such as learning the books of the Bible, memorizing short verses and being able to find verses in the Bible. They participate weekly in games, art and science as a means of exploring the truths of our faith and our world. They also attend Passport overnight camp in June together.

Teachers: Lauren Grubbs, Anna and Peter Martinek-Jenne

Youth Sunday School—Fellowship Hall

6th - 12th

In this hour, our youth will engage in relevant conversations about life and faith. We hope that when our youth leave CP, they have the ability to continue some form of personal, spiritual practice and that they have the tools to critically read and consider the sacred texts of their faith.

Adult Classes

Bible 101—Room 308

We will begin our study with the book of Galatians. It documents a deep division in the early church over the role of the Hebrew Bible in the life of a Christian. Please join us and add your perspective to this critical question.

God in Books – Room 303

This class reads and discusses a variety of Christian literature. This fall the class is continuing to read Faith Stories.

Generations—Parlor

The Generations class began as a combination class of our College Park Young Adults and our Senior Adults - but truly anyone is welcome! We are using the Formations curriculum to help us learn together and learn from each other about life and faith. This class meets during the Sunday morning Sunday School hour in the Parlor.
