KANGAROO VALLEY

MUSIC and ART

Our fifth biennial Festival is coming up on May 1-3, 2015. Our theme will be Music and Art, so basic that each can be found in every kindergarten yet so inspirational they form the basis of some of man's greatest achievements. We will present exhibitions and screenings of relevant artworks in most concerts. In several cases, you will see the artist create a painting in performance, including the improvisation skills of noted local artist Archibald Zammit-Ross. You will be surrounded by gorgeous images and gorgeous sounds!

Our bushwalks will give you both, along with some exercise. Our signature event, Sculpture in the Valley, will be in a delightful new venue, The Willows, and the sculpture prizes have been increased in value to ensure an even higher standard of works. Our other signature event is our Hausmusik series, where we take you into a private home in the valley for a concert in an intimate setting, featuring music and art entwined. Choose one of the three venue/artist combinations in each series, and make sure you arrive early to allow time for a complimentary cuppa, a home-made treat and some socialising.

Arts in the Valley is renowned for the creation of intimacy between performer and audience, made possible by the scale of the venues. Our village hall is just that – a village hall – and our private houses have generous rooms, often with outstanding views, but lounge rooms nonetheless. The city concert hall has its appeal, but in a village festival one can be transported to a new level of engagement with a performer. Come and be inspired!

Come to Kangaroo Valley and experience ...

- ★ the variety of places where music and art meet
- ★ Australia's best musicians in intimate settings
- ★ outdoor and indoor sculpture
- ★ Australia's most beautiful valley
- ★ the company of other festival goers
- ★ the wealth of artistic talent in the valley.

SIMON TEDESCHI

FRIDAY MAY 1, 8PM
KANGAROO VALLEY HALL

PICTURES AT AN EXHIBITION

Simon Tedeschi

Mussorgsky

A unique event opens our Music and Art theme: pianist Simon Tedeschi will perform Mussorgsky's iconic Pictures at an Exhibition in the original piano version. To make this event unique in the history of performances of this music, ten artists have been commissioned to paint a picture for each of the ten movements. These paintings will be screened during the performance and will be hung on the walls in the hall, along with some of the original pictures that inspired Mussorgsky.

We encourage you to arrive any time after 7:15pm to enjoy a drink and the chance to meet your fellow Festival attendees and performers.

LEONARD and SLAVA GRIGORYAN

SATURDAY MAY 2, 6:30PM
KANGAROO VALLEY HALL

GUITAR SNAPS

Leonard and Slava Grigoryan

Leonard Grigoryan has been a passionate photographer for many years, and has taken some striking and thought-provoking images. We asked him to devise a program in which the music and the pictures speak to each other.

The program will include improvising and some ethereally atmospheric music, including Phil Houghton's Wave Radiance, and will feature excerpts from Len and Slava's latest CD release.

SUPPER WITH THE PERFORMERS

8:45pm Saturday May 2

We have arranged Festival tables at two of the Valley's terrific restaurants where you can dine and mingle with other festival-goers and our performers and artists.

DAVID PEREIRA <sup>and</sup> TIMOTHY YOUNG

SUNDAY MAY 3, 2:30PM
KANGAROO VALLEY HALL

RESOUNDING RACHMANINOV

Martin Wesley-Smith

Peter Sculthorpe

David Pereira and Timothy Young

Arts in the Valley welcomes back the always popular David Pereira for this cello recital with Melbourne-based pianist, Timothy Young. Together they will perform the sumptuously romantic Rachmaninov Cello Sonata, preceded by works to commemorate both the life of Peter Sculthorpe and the 70th birthday of Kangaroo Valley composer Martin Wesley-Smith.

HAUSMUSIK A1

KEVIN HUNT

SATURDAY MAY 2, 2:30PM
CONSTABLE HOUSE

Kevin Hunt

Jazz pianist Kevin Hunt's musical style mixes composition with improvisation. In his playing, he encompasses many of the stylistic developments which have occurred in jazz since the 1920s. He has developed this eclectic mix of styles through his experiences in more than thirty years of performing and recording with Don Burrows, Judy Bailey, Guy Straz, Steve Hunter, Bob Barnard, James Morrison and the classical virtuoso Simon Tedeschi.

Kevin's program will include traditional aboriginal melodies, Scott Joplin, Duke Ellington, Bach, Ravel and Gismonti and birdsong.

HAUSMUSIK A2 DAVID HUDSON

SATURDAY MAY 2, 2:30PM
SASSAFRAS

David Hudson

David Hudson, the Cairns-based didgeridoo player, is multi-talented. He is not only a talented didg player but also has an engaging way of bringing indigenous culture, in both music and art, to his audience. He is one of the few artists who can perform in both worlds. He will play, make a painting, and connect their themes.

HAUSMUSIK B3 SIMON TEDESCHI and KEVIN HUNT

SUNDAY MAY 3, 11:00AM
CONSTABLE HOUSE

THE PAINTED PIANO

Simon Tedeschi

Kevin Hunt

Beautiful panels created by indigenous students at Menindee in far west NSW for the Stuart piano will be displayed during this duo recital of works created to celebrate the intersection of indigenous and western artforms. Photos of the piano being painted by the art students and a short film about the project will be shown.

Kevin Hunt's composition for two pianos (Boesendorfer and electric piano) is inspired by these art works by the Menindee art students. Themes of the suite were originally performed by Kevin with the music students of Menindee Central School in 2012 at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. In this performance he will be joined by his long-time collaborator, Simon Tedeschi.

SCULPTURE in the VALLEY

FRIDAY TO SUNDAY 10-4

Sculpture in the Valley 2015 will be held in a new venue – The Willows. With grandstand views of the escarpments, this property will provide an impressive backdrop to the indoor and outdoor works on display. This is a unique opportunity in the Kangaroo Valley calendar. Substantial prizes are on offer for the best works, and you can have your say in the People's Choice Awards (announced during Sunday afternoon concert).

All works will be available for sale.

Official opening and announcement of prize-winners Saturday at 11am.

OPTIONAL EXTRAS: BUSHWALKS

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY

David Hudson

Cec McLeod

8am Saturday May 2

David Hudson - didgeridoo

8am Sunday May 3

Cec McLeod - didgeridoo

A gentle walk to a superb view of Shoalhaven Gorge, ringing with masterful didgeridoo playing.

BECOME A KVAF MEMBER TODAY!

IT PAYS TO BELONG...

The Festival hallmark is intimacy, marked by the small scale of our Hausmusik venues. The Festival is limited in capacity, so available only to a select few, which is why we give priority to members in allocating package tickets.

Single tickets can be purchased from 1st February. Membership is of course open to all. Membership taken out now costs $40 and will run till the end of June 2016.

Members enjoy significant discounts on ticket prices. We expect the Festival to sell out and suggest that you book early if possible.

Membership is available at www.artsinthevalley.net.au/support/membership or by calling 0467 209 819.
