

Loft style living

at Carlow House

London NW1

from £470,000

Exclusive interiors matched by an unprecedented location.

Set behind an imposing building which has been transformed from a former Edwardian warehouse into a striking example of 1930's art deco architecture, the apartments at Carlow House now offer a new London landmark for luxury loft style living.

Providing 85 sensational suites, one and two bedroom apartments arranged around a magnificent 4 storey atrium, each residence will be finished to the highest specifications, with features inspired by award winning practice Rabih Hage.

Designed to surpass the expectations of the most discerning owner/occupier or investor, each apartment within the all-private development will boast sleek features which blend in perfect harmony with the character warehouse appeal.
