

Celebrating 100 years of the 19th Amendment

Alice Paul
(1885 - 1977)

"I never doubted
that equal rights
was the right direction. Most reforms, most problems, are complicated. But to me there is nothing
complicated
about ordinary equality."

THE SUFFRAGE PROJECT

19

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Paintings by Mary Kline-Misol

The 19: Suffrage Project honors women like the one featured in this portrait.

For more information about artist Mary Kline-Misol and how you can visit her gallery, go to:

<https://www.gallerymkm.com/battle-for-the-ballot/>

© 2020, Mary Kline-Misol.
All rights reserved.