

Celebrating 100 years of the 19th Amendment

Emmeline Pankhurst
(1858- 1928)

"Every man with a vote was considered
a foe to
woman suffrage
unless he was prepared to be actively a friend."

THE SUFFRAGE PROJECT

19

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
