

Celebrating 100 years of the 19th Amendment

Gertrude Bustill Mossell
(1855-1948)

"Give women
more power in the government offices if the desire is for peace and prosperity."

THE SUFFRAGE PROJECT

19

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of sex. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
