Falun Gong is, in my judgment, the single greatest spiritual movement in Asia today. There is nothing that begins to compare with it in terms of courage and importance.

Our informative flyers and activities are meant to stop a human rights tragedy currently taking place in China. But they are also for you. We could be tempted one way or another to betray our consciousness, only to regret it later. Each one of us reacts to the events in China, be it with sympathy, action or apathy. Only by taking the time to read this flyer, you are already making a difference.

On <http://faluninfo.net> you can read all about the latest developments on the persecution of Falun Gong and related human rights violations in China. Scan the QR code on the left to visit the website.

How can you help?

Several organizations that are fighting to protect human rights, have taken initiatives to get attention for the persecution of Falun Gong and the related organ harvesting on an international level. To make sure these initiatives are actually followed up by governments, several petitions have been set up. If enough signatures can be collected, the initiatives have to be addressed.

Visit [website with updated link to a petition] for an actual petition you can support.

Thanks a lot for your support!

Other things you can do:
