

No one will be denied services due to inability to pay.

There is a discounted/sliding fee scale available based on family size and income.