
Unhappy Resignation Letter due to Job Dissatisfaction

Dear [Manager's Name],

I wish to formally resign from my position at [Company Name], effective [Last Working Day]. My time here has provided me with significant insights, but I have come to realize that the nature of my job no longer aligns with my career ambitions.

While I am grateful for the experiences, the divergence between my personal aspirations and the tasks I perform daily has led to a persistent feeling of dissatisfaction. I am eager to seek roles that resonate more with my passion and skills.

I assure you of my full cooperation during the transition period.

Best wishes,

[Your Name]
