“A Genuine, Equal and Passionate Love in The Song of Songs”

Rabbi Daniela Szuster

Have you ever read the biblical book of Song of Songs?

If you have not, you will have a great opportunity to read it and learn it for the first time. If you have, you will have a great opportunity to read it again and learn interesting insights about the book.

On Thursday, January 9th, I will start teaching a course about the Song of Songs. The course has five sessions: January 9th, 23rd and 30th and February 6th, 27th, 7:00-8:15 pm, in person only.

First, we will have an introduction to the book and then we will study it from both a traditional and a feminist perspective. Each class we will have the opportunity to learn and sing a song from the Song of Songs.

The book of Song of Songs is unique, the only one in the Tanach (Hebrew Bible) which consists of love poems. In addition, we can find there a totally different kind of relationship between men and women compared to other books of the Tanach. The language is more like that of a Jewish feminist of our times than a writer from a patriarchal society.

You will be surprised by this beautiful, passionate and treasured book of the Tanach.

No Hebrew or previous knowledge is required.

I hope you can join me in this “lovely” journey.

IN PERSON SUNDAY and TUESDAY MORNING MINYANS ARE BACK!

Join us in person on Sunday mornings at 8:30am, Tuesday mornings at 7:45am and Tuesday evenings at 6:00pm. These minyans will be hybrid and we will broadcast on Zoom as well. Hope to see you in person at the synagogue!

Join us for breakfast 1st Tuesday of the month.

Cantor's Message

Cantor Jenna Kramarow

Cantor@TBTST.org

This past week Erica Bouldin and I went to see the incredible movie Wicked by John Chu, which was adapted from the musical. Wicked reimagines The Wizard of Oz from the perspective of Elphaba. Far from wicked, Elphaba is a moral force who stands against injustice. Yet her green skin marks her as an outsider, an object of fear and derision. In the film, Elphaba is manipulated and tricked by the Wizard (Jeff Goldblum) and Madam Mirabelle (Michelle Yeoh) into casting a spell that inflicts pain on animals. Once Elphaba (Cynthia Erivo) realizes what she did she refuses to help the Wizard in his persecution of talking animals and flees the Wizard's Emerald City. However, the Wizard and his co-conspirator Madam Mirabelle try to discredit her before she can tell the Ozians about the Wizard being responsible for the disappearing animals. Elphaba becomes the scapegoat for all of Oz's troubles, a tragic figure.

In many ways this mirrors the Jewish experience across millennia. One line from Wicked hits particularly hard: "The best way to bring folks together is to give them a real good enemy." When societies falter, they often seek a convenient scapegoat. And more often than not, that scapegoat has been the Jews.

As an example, consider Dr. Dillamond, the kind-hearted goat professor whose voice – literally – is taken away under Oz's anti-Animal policies. His dehumanization is met with indifference, even from his students. "Once they take your voice away, they can do anything to you," he laments. As the police come into the classroom and arrest the goat, the students sit there in shock but in silence. Elphaba, the one branded as the "other" is the only student to question what was happening and to look around and say are we going to sit here and do nothing? Sound familiar? The Wizard's authoritarian propaganda echoes the tactics of Nazi Germany, while the marginalization of animals recalls the dehumanization of Jews. These parallels are not incidental. They are integral, offering a poignant reminder of the stakes of silence in the face of hate.

But why do the Ozians so easily believe the words of the Wizard? As Wicked portrays it, it's because the Wizard has built himself up as an omniscient, omnipotent and benevolent being. He lives in the splendor of the Emerald City which parallels the splendor the Wizard has brought to the Ozians. However, he lied about having magic. The booming voice and giant wooden face he uses to talk to Oz obscure the fact that he is actually a pretty physically unimposing, powerless guy.

Similarly, Hitler also carefully crafted his persona, and would practice his speeches to the most minute detail to make sure every part of his performance emulated power. In Nazi Germany, aesthetics was core to conveying the gloriousness of Hitler's regime. Like the Emerald City, Nazis used architecture to symbolize an era of power and strength Hitler claimed to have ushered into the country. In both these cases those who were losing their lives in the process were ignored.

The story of Wicked is a lesson against counting people out without having the full story as well as leaders who practice populism over policy. Antisemitism is resurgent, fueled by social media distortions and political opportunism. So, let us take a page from this movie/musical/book. Be bold. Be righteous. Be unyielding in the face of lies. Because if Wicked teaches us anything, it is this: silence is complicity. The fight for truth, though lonely, is the only fight worth having.

Synagogue Etiquette for Services in the Sanctuary

Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek hopes that by observing the rules of decorum of our congregation you will enjoy worshiping with us. We ask that you conduct yourself in a respectful and modest manner befitting the sanctity of our synagogue.

Dress in the synagogue should reflect the holiness of the sanctuary. We ask that men wear long pants and collared shirt, and women wear modest clothing (no shorts, mini-skirts, mini dresses, sleeveless dresses/tops, or backless dresses/tops.).

Men are requested to wear a kippah at all times, especially in the sanctuary. Jewish men over the age of 13 are asked to wear a tallit upon entering the Sanctuary or chapel during services. Any Jewish man being given an Aliyah or honor on the bimah is expected to wear a tallit. If you need to leave the service at any time, please do not remove your tallit until you have exited the sanctuary.

Women are encouraged to wear a head covering in the sanctuary for services and expected to cover their heads when ascending the bimah. This applies to girls of post Bat Mitzvah age as well. Women are encouraged to wear a tallit on the Bimah.

Smoking, taking photographs, and using electronic equipment including cell phones are prohibited on synagogue premises during Shabbat and Yom Tov.

We request that you do not enter the Sanctuary and/or return to your seat during the following times: When the Ark is open; the Congregation is standing in prayer; the Haftarah is being chanted; and when the Rabbi is speaking. The usher will let you know when you can enter and/or return to your seat.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and support of these guidelines.

TEMPLE BETH TORAH SHA'ARAY TZEDEK MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek is a circle of friends anchored in the values of egalitarian, Conservative Judaism.

We want to expand our circle by attracting all Jews, young and old, families and singles, to a warm and welcoming congregation of friends. We are here to pray together, to play together, to learn together, and to be there for each other as we face the joys and difficulties of our lives.

President's Message

Stewart Klawsky
president@TBTST.org

Dear TBTST Family,

As we enter the first months of the new year, I am filled with gratitude and excitement for the opportunities ahead and the accomplishments we've shared. The months of January and February are bustling with activity and promise for our synagogue community, and I am thrilled to share some highlights with you.

First, I would like to extend a Mazel Tov to our newly elected officers and board members, who will officially be installed during a special ceremony this month. Their dedication and vision will guide us toward a vibrant and meaningful future. I encourage everyone to attend the installation event and offer your support and encouragement to these outstanding individuals who have stepped forward to serve.

Mark your calendars for a truly fun and spirited evening: our Jimmy Buffet-themed fundraiser! Scheduled for Saturday January 25th, this event promises to bring our community together with music, laughter, and a little tropical flair. Proceeds will support our programs and initiatives, allowing us to continue providing enriching opportunities for learning, worship, and connection. We hope to see you there with your Hawaiian shirts and beach hats!

Lastly, I want to express my sincere gratitude to the volunteers who dedicate their time and talents to making our synagogue a warm and welcoming place for all. Whether you've lent a hand at events, helped with planning, or supported our programs in any way, your contributions are the backbone of our synagogue community. Your efforts do not go unnoticed, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all that you do.

As we move into 2025, I encourage everyone to stay engaged, whether through prayer, learning, or participation in our events. Together, we can continue to grow and thrive as a community rooted in faith, tradition, and unity. Wishing you and your loved ones a joyous start to the secular new year, filled with health, happiness, and blessings.

All the best,
Stew Klawsky

BIRTHS

Mazel Tov to Dr. Doug Weiner & Dr. Lisa Sirota Weiner on the birth of their grandsons, Jack Milton (Yaakov Melech) and Cory Lev (Reuven Lemmuel), born to David and Alyssa Weiner Sandler October 24, 2024.

Mazel Tov to Sue Rosenblum on the arrival of her great granddaughter, Amalia Esther Scheer. Amalia was born October 21. Proud parents are Sarah and Evan Scheer.

Create A Jewish Legacy at TBTST

Creating your own Jewish legacy ensures your passions and the Jewish values you cherish will continue beyond your lifetime. Learn how the Life & Legacy program makes it easy and affordable to preserve and strengthen programs and organizations YOU care about that support Jewish life today and for generations to come – and potentially enjoy tax benefits.

Expressing Your Intent

It's easy to create your own personal legacy. Start by signing a simple letter of intent, a non-binding promise to leave a gift in the future to the organization(s) of your choice. With a legacy gift you can still take care of your family while also leaving something to preserve the programs and organizations that you care about. Most legacy gifts are simple designations in a will, retirement account or life insurance policy. Consult your financial adviser regarding these or other planned gifts.

Confirming Your Gift

Legacy gifts have increasingly become part of future planning when individuals and families meet with their financial, insurance and legal advisers. Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek and participating organizations in The Life & Legacy program can help facilitate your philanthropic planning by offering access to investment options such as gift annuities and donor advised funds. Let us know if you have already worked with a financial adviser to include supporting them in your plans. If you designate one of the Life & Legacy participating organizations, they may earn an additional financial incentive.

There are many ways, including making a bequest in a will or trust; naming the organization of your choice as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy, IRA, or pension fund; giving a gift of cash or assets; setting up a charitable gift annuity or charitable remainder trust. Please consult your professional adviser to determine which method of giving is best for you.

Welcome the Secular New Year with Us!

As we turn the page to a new calendar year, I am filled with gratitude for the vibrant and dynamic community we share here at TBTST. This past year has been one of growth, resilience, and connection, and I am excited to step into the opportunities that lie ahead in 2025. The new year is often a time of reflection and renewal. For many, it's a moment to set intentions and embrace new beginnings. Here at TBTST we are embracing this spirit with an inspiring lineup of programs, events, and initiatives designed to engage our community and deepen our shared commitment to Jewish life and learning.

Upcoming Highlights in 2025:

- Celebrating Together: We look forward to gathering for joyous Shabbat services, celebrations, and community events that bring warmth and unity to our congregation.
- Learning and Growth: From study groups to guest speakers, and other adult education classes, there will be ample opportunities for learning and spiritual exploration for members of all ages.
- Acts of Service: Our social action initiatives will continue to make a meaningful impact, including our ongoing support for local food banks, local assistance programs, and environmental projects.

As we look forward to these opportunities, I encourage each of you to consider your own New Year's resolutions. How can we, as individuals and as a community, bring more kindness, inclusion, and purpose into our lives? Together, we can make this year one of meaning and inspiration.

Thank you for being an integral part of our synagogue family. Your participation and support are what make TBTST a truly special place. Let's step into this new year with hope, enthusiasm, and a commitment to strengthening our bonds with one another.

Wishing you and your loved ones a year filled with health, happiness, and peace. Happy New Year!

B'Shalom,
Erica Bouldin
Executive Director

Early Childhood News

Rivka Seeman, Early Childhood Director
preschool@TBTST.org

We've had a very busy fall and early winter in the ECC! Thanksgiving was a beautiful time to celebrate our gratitude together! Our students enjoyed cooking activities and traditional Thanksgiving dishes such as corn bread and pumpkin pie. Our PSO organized a "Friendsgiving" pasta dinner the week of Thanksgiving that had an amazing turnout! It really lets us know how much we all like being together as a community.

Thanksgiving rolled into the winter season with our book fair! For a whole week we sold Scholastic children's books within our community. Parents bought books for their children and also for our classrooms.

Grandparent's day was a huge success with almost every child enjoying time with a grandparent or special grown up. Grandparents had a blast too. We started the morning with Challah dough braiding, took lots of pictures, sold more books, and celebrated Shabbat together!

Now, we are fully immersed in Chanukah preparations! We are decorating our hallways and bulletin boards with Chanukah themed student art. We are learning Chanukah songs and choreography! We came together for a Friday evening service and our whole school and the Hebrew school learned the song, S'vivon, Sov Sov Sov in preparation. All of the festivities will culminate in a Chanukah show in which all of our classes will perform in front of family and friends!

Religious School News

Karen Susman, Religious School Director

hcurriculum@TBTST.org

We have been so busy in the Religious School celebrating Hanukkah! As you can see in the photos, we made beautiful Hanukkiah's that we were able to light during the holiday. We had class parties and celebrated Hanukkah with our sister city classroom in Nesher, Israel. The students love hanging out with our Israeli counterparts, which we get to do 3 times a year.

We also had a presentation about Camp Ramah Dorom....the Conservative Movement's sleep away camp in Clayton, Georgia. We believe that families should get involved in their Synagogues, send their children to Religious School & Jewish Camps and get involved in the Synagogue's Youth Group to ensure the future of Judaism.

In January we continue our study of the Parashat HaShavua, the Torah Portion of the week. We have been studying the portion each week during Religious School on Sundays....either through discussion, word searches, or coloring sheets....the students find it extremely interesting. Our curriculum also includes vocabulary, Jewish symbols and figures, Holidays, Israel, Jewish Values and the Holocaust.

Our Hebrew on Tuesdays continues with our students learning the Hebrew aleph/bet, vocabulary words and prayers. The students continue to amaze me at their levels of Hebrew knowledge!

February will be very exciting with our World Wide Wrap & Family Education Day on Sunday, February 9th along with the Men's Club and congregation of TBTST. We will learn not only the prayers that are inside of the T'fillin, how to wrap T'fillin, and the prayers that go along with putting them on. Everyone will have the opportunity to wrap T'fillin if they want. We will continue the day learning about and celebrating with a Tu B'shevat Seder.

Thank you to Jody Glass and the Sisterhood and Men's Club of TBTST for their continued support.

Sisterhood

Jacqueline Montag, Sisterhood President

sisterhood@TBTST.org

As another year draws to a close, I tend to reflect on the past 12 months. I look back with great pride in my TBTST sisters. We have managed to raise funds for our beloved synagogue and have a wonderful and enriching time while doing it.

I have always said that our Sisterhood is unique in its warmth, friendliness, skills and organization. We are inclusive and bring out the abilities of all our members and create a wonderful whole by combining our talents. We invite potential members to come and check us out. If you choose to join us, I am sure you will be glad you did.

Ongoing throughout the year we had our Pirke Avot monthly study group, and our wonderful Book Club. Our Fashion Show was a huge success. This year we will have a Women's Seder, which promises to be a memorable event. Rabbi Daniela will teach classes for Rosh Chodesh. They are interactive and have been very well received.

We look forward to our annual Sisterhood Shabbat, January 31-February 1. This gives our members a chance to run the entire service from leading prayers, reading Torah and chanting a Haftarah, opening the Ark and doing an English reading. We encourage all our members to participate.

Throughout the coming year, watch for flyers about our upcoming programs. We will have many enjoyable and meaningful programs planned.

I wish you all a Happy Chanukah and a peaceful, joyful and healthy secular New Year.
B'Shalom,
Jacqui Montag, President

Men's Club

Larry Gerson, President

mensclub@TBTST.org

Special thanks to all the men who participated in Men's Club Shabbat. Our book signing event was very successful. Thanks to all who came to this event. Please join us on January 12 for a repeat of last year's most successful event....Bowling. See the flyer in this Scroll for more information. Our next event will be on Sunday, February 16th. Jews of Argentina will be the topic. Helene Herman will be presenting. Hope everybody has a great Hanukkah and a great secular New Year.

Your Jewish Home, Today and Tomorrow.

We would like to introduce you to a new payment method TBTST now offers. Venmo is an easy way to remit your payment to TBTST without paying fees. Should you choose this method of payment, here are the instructions to get started.

How to Sign Up and Use Venmo

1. Go to the app store on your Smart Phone, search for Venmo and download the app for Apple or Android (Venmo does not have a Windows app)

2. Open the Venmo app.

3. Create your account using your name, email address and cell phone number. Create a secure password (between 8 and 32 characters long). A code will be sent to your phone. Enter the code in the Venmo app.

4. Verify your phone number and email address. Add your bank account. Venmo will explain how your bank account will be verified.

NOTE: You can enter a credit card into your Venmo account. However, Venmo will charge a fee if you pay us using a credit card. If you use your bank account, there will be no fee and it is the same as writing a check.

5. You will want to adjust the Privacy Settings on your app so that no one can see your transactions. Look for the 3 parallel lines in the upper right corner of the app. Touch that to open the main menu. Touch Settings, then touch Privacy. Finally, change the default settings to Private.

6. Once this is done you can start to use your Venmo account to pay TBTST.

7. To make a payment on your app find the Pay or Request button on the home page.

The button will either look like this:

or it will look like a pencil and a square.

8. Type in Venmo@tbtst.org (the “V” in Venmo must be capitalized) in the box that appears. Put in the dollar amount you would like to pay. Please do not forget to fill in the “What’s it for?” box so we will know the purpose of your payment. Press the pay button. Look at the bottom of the screen and click Pay Temple Beth Torah Sha’aray Tzedek. You must do this last step, or the transaction will not be completed.

9. Once you have made a payment to TBTST, you will not have to enter the recipient again. Just look at the list of Top People and you should see Temple Beth Torah Sha’aray Tzedek. Click on that and you’re ready to pay.

If you need help with these instructions, please call the office and we will be happy to help 954-721-7660 ex 131

Tree of Life

The tree has always been a symbol of life and strength in the Jewish tradition. The parts of the tree depend upon one another just as those in need in our community depend upon Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek for help and support.

In the same manner, Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek depends upon the generosity of our community to enable us to continue to provide that support. The Tree of Life is the perfect symbol to allow us to recognize the generous donors who, in turn, help us to continue providing necessary services to our community.

Consider honoring a friend or relative's birthday, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, anniversary, etc. or using this as a memorial gift. By purchasing a leaf for the Tree of Life, you will not only be helping the Tree to grow, but you will also be helping TBTST to grow, now and in the future.

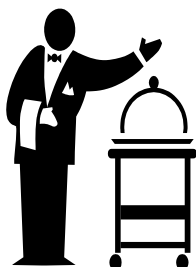

There are gold, silver and bronze leaves available at a price of $180.

If you are interested in supporting TBTST, please contact our office and we will gladly assist you. You can also email frontdesk@tbtst.org or make your donation online at www.tbtst.org.

Thank you for your donation.

CONSIDER TBTST FOR YOUR NEXT SIMCHA

Your next simcha will be one of your family's milestones, a day you will talk about for years to come. You want the day to be memorable and you want to look back on it fondly. Come and tour our state-of-the-art Kosher Kitchen, our magnificent Social Hall with adjoining Bride's Room, and our beautiful lobby. All are designed with one idea - to make your simcha at TBTST one that will exceed your standard of excellence.

TBTST Donations

TBTST looks forward to acknowledging significant milestones in the lives of our members. Please notify the Temple Office when you have a birthday or anniversary to celebrate. We are constantly updating our records and we want to be timely in offering you a mazel tov.

If you have a family member, or know of a fellow congregant, who is ailing or in the hospital, please notify us as well. The Rabbi tries to visit hospitalized members and we will include them in our Prayers for the Sick (see form elsewhere in this issue.)

When you contact us, please include your phone number and make sure we have your email address.

Condolences

Sadly, we mourn the death of our beloved member, Gilda Saul,

Sadly, we mourn the death of longtime member, Joanne Friedman.

Yahrzeit is a Yiddish word, which literally means "time of year" or memorial. Jews of Ashkenazi descent use this term. Sephardim call this commemoration nahala, in Ladino. This custom is widely observed and based on the Jewish tradition of commemorating the death of a relative. All the Yahrzeit rituals are deeply ingrained in the Jewish life. The common rituals that are performed in the honorable memory of the departed soul include reciting the Kaddish prayer and lighting a Yahrzeit candle.

Yahrzeit also includes the action of donating charity in memory of a deceased loved one. Through the performance of the mitzvah of tzedakah in the name of the departed, the merit of the deed is shared with the soul of the late relative, as their memory is enhanced.

Yahzreits

One of the most beautiful and meaningful customs of the Jewish people is remembering those we have lost by memorializing our beloved through acts of Tzedakah and by saying Kaddish. The following Yahrzeits will be acknowledged and Kaddish will be said during Shabbat Services on the dates below.

I'll Treat You Like Family

Choosing a doctor to trust with the care of your eyes, your precious sight, can be a difficult decision. You want someone board-certified, professional and experienced. But you also want a doctor who will take the time to listen to you, explain things and treat you with kindness and respect.

I have been in practice since 1982, caring for patients with a personal touch. Whether it's an eye exam or surgery, you'll get the best I have to give. You'll be treated the way you know you should be. Like family.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

If a relative or friend is suffering from an illness, perhaps you would like to recite a special prayer for the speedy recovery of the ailing person. Traditionally, the Hebrew name of the sick person and the Hebrew name of the sick person's mother are mentioned during the prayer. It would be helpful if you would provide us with this information when you make your request.

Prayers for the recovery of the sick are customarily accompanied by a gift to a deserving charity. The merit of this kind deed arouses God's mercy and His powers of healing. Although any amount is deemed appropriate on such an occasion, a gift of CHAI - $18 - or multiples of 18 - is particularly fitting when pleading for a person's recovery from sickness.

CHAI in Hebrew means life. The two Hebrew letters which constitute the word - CHET and YUD - have the numerical equivalents of eight and ten respectively, together yielding the sum of eighteen. For this reason it has become a custom to give charity in the amount of CHAI when praying for the well-being of a suffering person.

Enclosed please find a contribution in the sum of $ _____

Please make a Misheberach (Prayer for the recovery) for:

Name (English) _____

(Hebrew) _____ Mother's Name (Hebrew) _____

Become an important part of TBTST's Social Action Committee's Mazon Project

The WECARE community outreach program operates a food pantry that provides over 3,500 bags of groceries each year to our neighbors in need regardless of race, religion, age, gender or nationality. We could not accomplish this important mitzvah if not for the generous donations we receive year round from caring individuals, organizations, schools, synagogues and businesses in our community. Thanks to United Way of Broward County, we are also able to distribute fresh produce to needy people through Project Lifeline.

Donations are greatly needed and appreciated to keep our shelves stocked so we can help the many men, women and children needing our services throughout the year. Currently, WECARE provides enough free non-perishable food and fresh produce to prepare over 65,000 meals for our neighbors in need.

WECARE also collects small toiletry items, provides free medical equipment loans including wheelchairs, walkers and canes, distributes hand-knitted items to nursing home residents, and collects eyeglasses and hearing aids that are sent to New Eyes for the Needy. Donations of toiletry items and medical equipment are very much appreciated.

Facts about Hunger in Broward County

According to Million Meals Committee, there are 19 active food pantries in Broward County inclusive of the Soref JCC WECARE Food Pantry, and 4 active food banks. The Broward Regional Health Planning Council, Inc., Food Security Survey Report notes that 44% of all students enrolled in Broward County elementary schools qualify for free and reduced lunches. 15% of 56,873 Broward children live in poverty.

TEMPLE BETH TORAH SHA'ARAY TZEDEK MISSION STATEMENT

Temple Beth Torah Sha'aray Tzedek is a circle of friends anchored in the values of egalitarian, Conservative Judaism.

We want to expand our circle by attracting all Jews, young and old, families and singles, to a warm and welcoming congregation of friends. We are here to pray together, to play together, to learn together, and to be there for each other as we face the joys and difficulties of our lives.
