Acknowledgement of Release of Medical Records and Payment Policy

Release of Medical Information

- I authorize Katmai Oncology Group to release and/or obtain any medical records concerning myself from/to any physician, hospital, or agency involved with my care.
- I authorize Katmai Oncology Group to download my prescription reimbursement history electronically.

Assignment of Medical Benefits

- I authorize my insurance carrier to assign all medical benefits, if applicable, to Katmai Oncology Group.
- I authorize release of medical information necessary to process all medical insurance claims.

Usual and Customary Rates

- We, Katmai Oncology Group, charge what is usual and customary for our area.
- I am responsible for payment regardless of any insurance company's arbitrary determination of usual and customary rates.

Payment Policy

- Co-payments are to be collected at the time services are received. We accept cash, check, Visa, and MasterCard.
- All medical services provided are directly charged to the patient or responsible party.
- If our physician is contracted with your insurance carrier, we will accept their negotiated rate for the charges billed.
- I will be responsible for any balance deemed patient responsibility/non-payable/non-covered by my insurance and billed accordingly.
- Payment is expected in full upon receipt of statement or payment arrangements must be made with our billing office.
- If this account is assigned to an attorney for collections and/or suit, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs of collection.
- I hereby assign all medical benefits to which I am entitled to my physician for services rendered to my dependent or me.
- This assignment will remain in effect until revoked, by me, in writing. A photocopy of this assignment is to be considered as valid as the original.

I HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND, AND AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE ABOVE RELEASE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION AND PAYMENT POLICIES.

Patient Portal: Ontada Health
User Authorization Form

Ontada Health, the Patient Portal (the "Portal") offers convenient and secure access to your personal health record. As the patient, you are in control of your Portal record: we will not activate your personal account unless you authorize us to do so.

You may use your own personal e-mail address, or assign an Authorized Designee's e-mail address to access the Portal. If you assign an Authorized Designee, they (and you) must understand that by signing this form, the listed e-mail address will be utilized for Portal purposes.

If you choose to sign-up for the Portal, you receive an e-mail with unique link that you will use to create a password in order to access your personal health record. Please look for an email from Ontada Health promptly after submitting this form. For your protection, the link is designed to expire quickly if not used. Please contact your physician's office if you require a new link sent to your e-mail address.

Because personal information about your health and medical history is available via the Portal, it is very important that you keep your password private. Do not share your password with anyone or write it in a place easily accessible to others.

If you change email addresses, or if you wish to discontinue utilizing the Portal, please contact your physician's office.

Terms

You are receiving access to the Portal, the terms and conditions of the Portal shall apply to this User Electronic Mail Authorization Form. Please print clearly.

Notice of Privacy - Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights (see below section for more detailed information)

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your paper or electronic medical record
- Correct your paper or electronic medical record
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

Your Choices (see below section for more detailed information)

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Tell family and friends about your condition
- Provide disaster relief
- Include you in a hospital directory
- Provide mental health care
- Market our services and sell your information
- Raise funds

Our Uses and Disclosures (see below section for more detailed information)

We may use and share your information as we:

- Treat you
- Run our organization
- Bill for your services
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law
- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
- Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record

- You can ask us to correct health information that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.
- You can ask to communicate with your provider in a private / quiet area in the clinic.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. An electronic copy will always be available at the above website.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. Please provide copies of any legal documentation.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting our Privacy Officer using the contact information above.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us - we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory
  If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

In the case of fundraising:

- We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We are legally allowed to and will typically use or share your health information without your consent in the following ways.

Treat you

We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.

- Example: A doctor treating you for an injury asks another doctor about your overall health condition.

Run our organization

We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.

- Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your services
We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.
- Example: We may provide your health or demographic information to your health plan to pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?
We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues
We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research
We can use or share your information for health research.
Comply with the law
We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.
Respond to organ and tissue donation requests
We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
Work with a medical examiner or funeral director
We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.
Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
We can use or share health information about you:
- For workers' compensation claims
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions
We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities
- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice
We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site. You will not be required to sign another acknowledgement of receipt form.

This notice becomes effective on January 17, 2017.
