

Punctuation are marks we use in writing to help us make the meaning clear. Every sentence must end with a period, exclamation point or question mark. Other punctuation includes commas, quotation marks and apostrophes.

,	comma	used to separate items in a list or to separate clauses	I want steak, eggs, and potatoes.
,	comma	used between a city and state, or in a date	He went to Albany, New York on Thursday, January 14, 2015.

Rewrite each sentence, using commas.

1. I really want that dress in black red pink and blue.

2. Can we go to the movies on Friday June 12?

3. She asked us to pick up milk butter cheese and eggs.

4. The flowers were beautiful fragrant and fresh.

5. My favorite colors are purple pink and red.

6. You have a Dr.'s appointment on May 15 2016.
