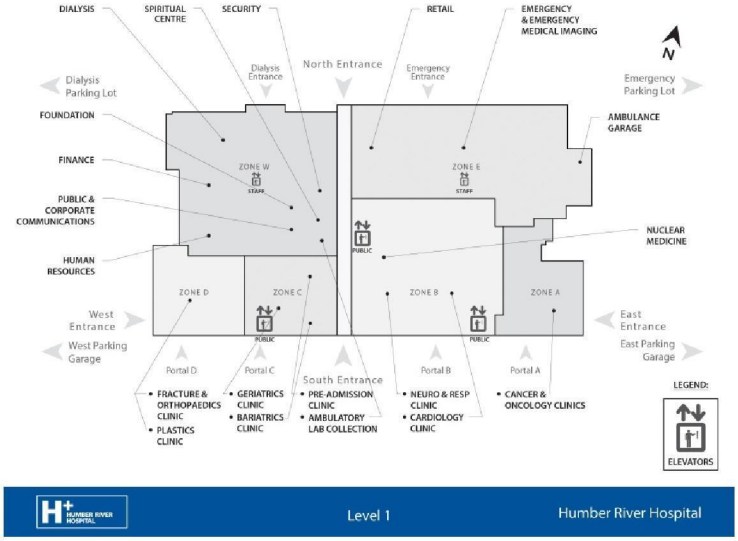
But if you have the time, it's worth the walk. A two-storey hallway, with lots of natural light, intersected with our north-south hallway. Here you will find information desks at both ends, and more retail kiosks towards the north side.


And in the corners of the building on the north side (Wilson Avenue) will be our Dialysis and Emergency Departments, both with separate entrances and driveways.