WHAT DOES ORIGIN INVESTMENTS GROUP, LLC DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number, taxpayer identification number and income
- Account balances, account information and account transactions
- Assets, investment and investor information
- Contact information
- Wire transfer instructions
- Formation documents for entity investment accounts
- W-9s

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Origin Investments Group, LLC chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| Reasons we can share your personal information  | Does Origin Investments Group share? | Can you limit this sharing? |

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Origin Investments Group, LLC (“Origin”)

What we do

How does Origin protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Origin collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Subscribe to purchase an interest in a fund
- Give us your contact information
- Open an account
- Make a wire transfer or tell us where to send money
- Show your government-issued identification
- Register on our website, subscribe to a newsletter, download educational content and product documentation, filling out the contact form on our website, or interacting with our chat bot

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
