

English language certificates issued by foreign language examination centres accepted as equivalent to B2 (or higher) by the BME Doctoral School of Civil Engineering and Earth Sciences

An excerpt from the Educational Authority Accreditation Centre for Foreign Language Examinations (nyak.oh.gov.hu) in July 2020. If there are differences between this summary and their official web page (except for TOEFL and IELTS), then their web page is authoritative.

ETS (www.ets.org)

- TOEFL iBT: 66 or higher
- TOEFL cBT: 180 or higher
- TOEFL pBT: 500 or higher
- TOEIC: 600 or higher

Cambridge (www.cambridgeenglish.org)

- BEC: Vantage
- BULATS: 65 or higher
- CELS: Vantage, all parts passed
- ESOL: FCE, CAE, CPE
- IELTS: 5.0 or higher
- ILEC: B2 or C1

City and Guilds (www.cityandguilds.com)

- ESOL + SESOL International: Communicator B2 or Expert C1
- Functional Skills: Level 1 or higher, all parts passed

Pearson Test of English General (qualifications.pearson.com)

- Level 3 or higher, all parts passed
- LCCIEB Business: Level 2 or higher, pass (60% or higher)

University of Michigan (michiganassessment.org)

- ECCE: B2
- ECPE: C2

telc English (www.telc.net)

- B2 or C1

ECL (eclexam.eu)

- „C” or „D” (before July 2008)
- B2 or C1 (after July 2008)

Euroexam International Certificate (www.euroexam.com)

- Euroexam Euro or EuroPro: B2 or C1
- Euroexam Academic: C1
- score must be at least 40% for each part and at least 60% overall