Outdoor Attractions

Copenhagen

KASTELLET

Bordering the idyllic suburb of Østerbro and the inner city, this popular walking area is home to a 16th-century fortress in the shape of a pentagon, complete with bastions at each of its corners. Grab a coffee and wander the grounds, enjoying scenic views of the water and various historic military barracks.

Gl. Hovedvagt, Kastellet 1, 2100

NYBODER

Famous for its distinctive yellow townhouses, the district was once used as Naval barracks for families serving Christian IV. Architects and history-enthusiasts alike will enjoy wandering this historic area. After walking, make sure to stop by one of the many cafes, wine bars and design boutiques located in the surrounding area.

Sankt Pauls Gade 24, 1313

SØERNE, THE LAKES

The lakes are a series of 3 rectangular bodies of water that run alongside the popular districts of Nørrebro, Østerbro and Vesterbro. For the authentic Copenhagen experience — make sure to grab a drink at one of the many cosy wine bars and coffee shops lining the lakes.

Looking Further

Sometimes, a little fresh air is all we need. Break away from the noise and bustle of the city and immerse yourself in world-class art and culture, just a few minutes from the Audo House by train.

LOUISIANA

Less than an hour north of The Audo, you'll discover Louisiana: an internationally acclaimed art museum located on the shore of the Øresund Sound. To date, the museum boasts one of Scandinavia's largest collections of modern art, dating back to 1945. From The Audo, guests can easily catch a train from Nordhavn St. that leads its passengers on a scenic trip up the coast.

After browsing the art, stop by the museum cafe for a coffee and cake before venturing outside. There are several art installations hidden throughout the surrounding nature for visitors to discover. When you're finished wandering through the trails, walk down to the seashore and spend some time by the water before heading home for the day.

Gl. Strandvej 13, 3050 Humlebæk

ORDRUPGAARD

Venture up to Chartottenlund, a picturesque seaside municipality north of Copenhagen for noteworthy art, sprawling woodlands and world-class architecture from the visionary Iraqi-born British architect, Zaha Hadid. The area is home to Ordrupgaard, an art museum and park featuring an extensive collection of works from the Danish Golden Age.

The Zaha Hadid Wing was designed in 2005. Clad in black-lava concrete and outfitted with expansive glass windows, the building's organic lines and structural fluidity lend the impression that the extension rises out of the landscape itself. We recommend that you set aside a full afternoon to immerse yourself in the beauty of the buildings, art and surroundings area.
