

PRIVACY POLICY

General

In order to give you the best possible service, we may need to collect and process certain personal data about you. However, we respect and value your privacy and we are committed to protect it. This privacy policy contains information about what personal data we collect, what are the key principles of processing the data and what rights you have relating to your personal data.

Prodiags Ltd and HMV-Systems Baltic Oü processes your personal data in compliance with this privacy policy and applicable laws, so we ask you to read this policy carefully. We may do updates to this privacy policy from time to time associated with development of our business operations or changes in applicable laws.

By using our services and website or contacting us, you accept that we process your personal data according to this privacy policy. If you do not accept these terms, it is likely that we cannot provide any services to you.

For what purposes is personal data collected and used?

We collect, store and process your personal data only for predefined purposes. The main purposes for processing personal data are:

- access control and safeguarding of your account;
- managing learning;
- supporting customers;
- fulfilling our contractual obligations;
- fulfilling legal obligations and responding to legal claims;
- customer communications and responding to contact requests;
- development of our business; and
- targeting our services to you.

What data you collect about me and from which sources?

We collect personal data about you mainly from yourself when you contact us or use our services.

In Prodiags learning environment we are also processing data of customer organizations (schools, businesses, etc.). The processing of data is confidential and is based on a contractual relationship with the controller of the register. The register information used by the customer organizations may differ from what we use in our own business. If you use the Prodiags system with a custom license, please consider the organization’s privacy statement release. Organization specific Privacy Policy reports can be found also from Prodiags Personal Settings.

We also collect personal data about our website visitors with Google Analytics, in order to analyze website use, develop it further, and for targeting relevant marketing content for our customers and website visitors.
