WHY LEARN TO RECITE QURAN

The importance of Quran Recitation is immense. It is one of the basic rights of the Quran on us believers to recite it rightfully.

The Holy Book of Quran has been revealed down upon us for us to read (recite) it, understand the teachings and apply them into our daily lives.

The Quran recitation has been emphasized by both Allah (SWT) and His Messenger (PBUH).

There are many inferences in the Quran and Hadith that shed light on the importance of Quran recitation and the rewards kept in it for us. Not only in this life, but we're promised to get rewarded for reciting Quran in our afterlife as well.

Allah (SWT) said in the holy Quran:

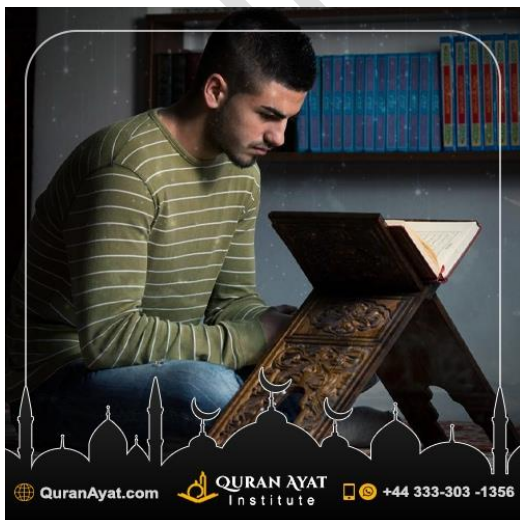

And recite the Quran with Tarteel.

[\[Holy Quran | 73:4\]](#)

“Tarteel” means slow, measured, and rhythmic recitation.

This is the basic right of the Quran for us to recite it in the right way, following the right rules of Tajweed.

It is a form of worship that is pleased by both Allah and our Prophet (S.A.W) and has many rewards in it for us.

To be able to recite the Quran is what will open up many doors of goodness for you in this life and hereafter. It will lead us to many opportunities and the path of righteousness.

Correct Quran Recitation will fulfill the right of the Quran. Thus, it will represent us on the Day of Judgment. Quran will request for our forgiveness.

No matter whatever stage of life you are in when you have made your mind, get right into it, and Allah will make it easier for you.

Every step towards the righteous way will be rewarded, and Allah will make it smooth.

Every struggle you face will be rewarded with ease in the life hereafter.

A person who struggles with recitation is rewarded twice as a fluent person, according to a Hadith.

Benefits of Learning How to Recite Quran

There are many virtues that Muslim gains from reciting the holy Quran. Not to mention that the journey of learning to recite Quran itself is very rewarding.
