INVERLOCHY CASTLE

THE GRAND HOTEL OF THE SCOTTISH HIGHLANDS

Inverlochy Castle is reflected in its own loch, and backed by Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain. The grandeur of this much-awarded historic hotel, with its fine dining restaurant, only adds to the beauty of its dramatic landscape. Queen Victoria, who used the Castle as an escape from running the British Empire, said she "never saw a lovelier or more romantic spot". Today's guest receives an equally royal welcome in the Great Hall, and spends their days walking, relaxing with a matchless selection of limited-release whiskies, or enjoying the fabulous cuisine. It is also the greatest of all bases from which to explore the Highlands.

17 Castle rooms and suites located in the main castle

8 Walled Garden rooms and suites situated in our stunning Victorian Walled Garden

2 bedroom Gate Lodge, for more privacy located at the gates of the hotel

Fine dining restaurant 'Seasgair' or our Shared Dining Experience in our Mary Shaw room (overseen by legendary chef Michel Roux Jr)

Full-sized snooker table

Extensive whisky library

Private loch

Clay pigeon shooting and archery on property, on request

Games room

Stalking, shooting, fishing, pony trekking, skiing, golf & other outdoor pursuits available nearby

ISLE OF ERISKA

UNIMAGINABLY BEAUTIFUL HOTEL AND SPA RESORT ON A PRIVATE ISLAND OFF THE WEST COAST OF SCOTLAND

Mountains, islands, lochs, inlets, wilderness: the view from Eriska has it all. This gourmet luxury and spa resort is on its own island, off the west coast of Scotland. You could be at the ends of the earth; yet Eriska is less than two hours by private transfer from Glasgow International Airport. As well as a fine dining restaurant using local ingredients, there is an ESPA spa with steam room, sauna, jacuzzi and 17-metre indoor pool, indoor sports hall and a variety of accommodation with fabulous views.

Eriska offers a number of activities by prior arrangement, including clay pigeon shooting, mountain biking, sailing and watersports. Just walking around this beautiful island on the hiking trails is an adventure in itself. Cuisine is a focus at Eriska, which has its own salmon smokery and kitchen garden; the chefs can often be seen roaming the island foraging for local wild ingredients, from seaweed to herbs. Vistas from all the rooms are spectacular.

16 bedrooms, 2 Spa Suites, 3 Garden Suites, 1 Garden Cottage and 1 Spa Cottage
6 Hilltop Reserves and the 3 bedroom Arnott's House
Famed fine dining restaurant using local ingredients and The Deck offering a lighter option in dining

GLENFINNAN HOUSE HOTEL

Located 15 miles from Fort William, the outdoor capital of the UK and home to the highest mountain in the UK, Ben Nevis, Glenfinnan House is situated on a rolling lawn that meets the shore of Loch Shiel with the National Trust for Scotland monument to Prince Charles Edward Stuart (a.k.a. Bonnie Prince Charlie) across the bay.

The house was built as an inn between 1752 and 1755 by Alexander MacDonald VII of Glenaladale who was wounded at Culloden (1746) fighting for Prince Charles Edward Stuart (Bonnie Prince Charlie).

The present owners, came to Glenfinnan in 1971 by which time the house was in an advanced state of disrepair. They converted the house into a hotel whilst attempting to retain as much of its original character as possible. This Scottish country house is a fine stone mansion with attractive public rooms and 14 bedrooms. Along pine-panelled walls hang an atmospheric collection of paintings including an impressive portrayal of the 1745 Jacobite Rising at Glenfinnan.

A 10-minute walk away through the red deer dotted Glenfinnan Estate, is the famous Glenfinnan viaduct railway bridge which was used in scenes from various Harry Potter films and where the Jacobite Steam Train runs twice daily through the summer months.

Ideally located for days trips to Skye, Loch Ness and Oban, yet provides seclusion and a real taste of the Highlands of Scotland, remaining almost untouched for hundreds of years.

- 14 bedrooms
- Dining room serving the best of local produce
- Lively bar with traditional local music
- Relaxing public rooms full of character and charm
- Large outdoor seating area

KNOCKENDARROCH HOTEL

PITLOCHRY

ICMI LUXURY COLLECTION

KNOCKENDARROCH HOTEL

Knockendarroch was built for an Aberdonian lawyer in 1880. It was one of Pitlochry's finest houses with over four acres of gardens, an inner courtyard, a gate house and coach house. No expense was spared during its construction with many of the original features still existing, including the house's grand entrance porch with stained glass windows and stone columns, and a grand staircase with another enormous stained glass window. Other important features of the design are the intricate cornice work and ceiling roses in the public rooms.

The house became the theatre headquarters and the home of Kenneth Ireland, the Artistic Director. A tea room and box office was built (which is still on site) and soon after, the tent was replaced by a more permanent structure where the theatre remained until 1981 when it relocated to its current site across the river. The Pitlochry Theatre Company subsequently sold Knockendarroch to the McMenemie family who established the house as a hotel.

At Knockendarroch Hotel we still have close ties with the Pitlochry Theatre and many of our guests enjoy an evening there.

An elegant 18 bedroom 4 star hotel set in 2 acres of elevated private grounds with glorious views over Pitlochry and the Tummel Valley. Only a short stroll from Pitlochry town centre.

Our warm and welcoming hotel has won many national awards over the years, including several 'Hotel of the Year' awards, and we continue to go from strength to strength. At Knockendarroch we pride ourselves on our carefully constructed blend of excellent food, comfortable bedrooms, wonderful views and friendly service.

The style is contemporary country house with all rooms individually styled. Choose one of our Suites for an extra touch of luxury or one of the Larch House Garden Rooms added in 2021.

Enjoy a 2 AA rosette dinner in the orangerie restaurant and relax by the log fires in the atmospheric lounge.
