

SALT

CONTEMPORARY DANCE

SALT

SALT Contemporary Dance is the look of now, celebrating innovation in dance through performance and creation, inspiring generations through compelling arts education, and using dance as a salve for current social issues, thus elevating the vibrancy, diversity and health of our community.

“They are creating a buzz not just nationally, but overseas. They simply stand out in a sea of prospects presenting contemporary dance today. This dynamic troupe has surpassed expectations and challenged possibilities; pushed the boundaries and raised the bar for what audiences should expect.

- Ihsan Rustem, International Choreographer

SALT Contemporary Dance is available for national touring and outreach, in-person or virtual.

Program A

Curate a show in collaboration with SALT. Choose between a variety of different pieces that will be combined into one cutting-edge repertoire performance. SALT's repertoire features national and internationally acclaimed choreographers including Ihsan Rustem, Micaela Taylor, Garrett Smith and more! This exciting program features the works that SALT is known for while customizing the experience to your communities style.

Program B

SALT's longest-running production: PAN - a great show for presenters interested in community outreach opportunities. A magical and inspiring reimagining of the Peter Pan story that allows local dancers the chance to perform alongside SALT professionals. Audiences flock to this production to support their local dancers and to enjoy the heartwarming narrative of a favorite childhood story.

"They represent the look of now."
- Eric Handman

