Boretti

Imperatore Nero BI

Boretti's flagship Imperatore built-in gas barbecue is a wonder of elegant design and a true powerhouse, with four high-power (4.3 KW) casted steel main burners and an incorporated infrared back burner. This BBQ has custom-made illuminated Boretti knobs and a unique black brushed finish. Imperatore is made of the highest quality components and materials; it comes with 10 years premium warranty as standard.

The Imperatore BI has four powerful 4.3 KW main burners that sear your meat, giving it a nice crust and leaving it juicy inside, lifting your dishes to the next level. It also has an infrared burner that generates extra heat for searing meat or slow cooking dishes on the optional rotisserie. Thanks to its quick adaptability, you can spontaneously persuade your 'amici e famiglia' to stay for dinner.

The heat can be regulated in each section individually, allowing you to prepare various dishes with varying techniques at the same time.

The sleek design of this built-in barbecue suits all garden styles. This barbecue can easily be put on a counter top in your outside lounge area or built it into your outdoor kitchen.

So, do you fancy a grigliata all'italiana with skewers, steak, shrimp, calamari? Simply switch on the power by turning one or more of the illuminated custom-made BORETTI knobs. Cook, serve and impress your guests in no time!

Boretti

Imperatore Nero 5B

Boretti's flagship Imperatore movable gas barbecue is a wonder of elegant design and a true powerhouse, with 5 high-power (4.3 KW) casted steel main burners, an incorporated infrared back burner and casted brass side-burners. The outdoor kitchen has custom-made illuminated Boretti knobs and a unique black brushed finish. Imperatore is made of high-quality components and materials; it comes with 10 years premium warranty as standard.

The heat can be regulated in each section individually, allowing you to prepare various dishes with varying techniques at the same time. The heat is spread evenly by the casted side-burner, which is renowned for its heat retention.

Explore new cooking possibilities and bring your culinary arts to the next level! With its two side-tables and soft-closing drawers to tuck away your tools, this premium outdoor kitchen forms an aesthetic statement in your garden or lounge area. The sleek design of this barbecue suits all garden styles.

Boretti

Ceramica Large

With the kamado barbecue including accessories, you have everything you need to warm your guests' hearts.

The unique Boretti X-frame and custom-made finish of the ceramic body make the Boretti Ceramica Medium the centrepiece of your garden. This premium kamado barbecue allows you to experiment with many different cooking techniques.

The high-quality and durable, thick ceramic body of the Boretti Ceramica offers a broad range of possibilities. Thanks to the multiple-level cooking system, four half-moon shaped grills (two cast-iron and two stainless steel) and precise regulation of temperature, you have the flexibility to make any dish you want. An instant success for anyone who wishes to cook at a high culinary level.

This appealing kamado will tempt you to use all cooking techniques to take your grilling to the next level. Ceramic is perfect for cooking low and slow dishes, grilling, smoking, steaming, baking and pizza. As you are grilling with a closed lid, the oval body isolates, reflects and contains heat and hot air for a long time. This means you'll have to use less charcoal, which makes it a sustainable alternative to regular BBQ's.

The two half-moon shaped deflector plates allow you to create direct and indirect heating zones, but also to use only half of the barbecue. The juiciness and crispiness of your dishes will astonish you.

Conveniently prepare food on the attached side tables, while you entertain your impressed guests. The X-frame enables quick access to your tools. The ash drawer is easy to clean; the charcoal basket is within reach. Moving this heavyweight beauty is easy, thanks to the four wheels on the unique Boretti X-frame. The brakes ensure firm placement in your garden or terrace. The top-level quality of the Boretti Ceramica ensures it can withstand many different weather conditions.

Maggiore - Gas

The Boretti Maggiore gas barbecue is very similar in design. Just like our Boretti cookers, this outdoor kitchen has control knobs and is easy to move around. The front has a black 'oven door', which serves as a handy storage space. The Maggiore has three main burners, a gas side burner, and infrared bottom and back burners, allowing you to prepare any dish perfectly. Like almost all Boretti barbecues, this one is also equipped with two cast iron grill racks and a cast iron flat top grill. The Maggiore outdoor kitchen also features a handy spice rack, so you have everything at hand to experiment with various dishes.

Boretti

Luciano Nero

The Boretti Luciano is the most comprehensive outdoor kitchen in the Collezione Giardino. This model has drawers and extra storage space for the gas cylinder or cover. The Luciano's most unique feature is a fridge for keeping dishes and drinks cool.

The gas barbecue has a large grill surface, allowing you to enjoy a lovely barbecue with your family and friends. With seven burners, four main burners, a gas side burner, an infrared back-burner, and an infrared bottom burner, the possibilities are endless.

Ibrido - Hybrid barbecue gas/charcoal

Boretti has developed the Ibrido for every barbecue enthusiast who cannot and/or does not want to choose between charcoal and gas. The Ibrido combines the pleasure of grilling on a real charcoal fire and the convenience of cooking on gas. The matte black outdoor kitchen has all the comforts. Use the large grill surface to prepare the most delicious dishes in no time. The two side tables provide you with enough space to hold your ingredients and dishes. Under the left side table is a 'designer' waste bag.

The Ibrido has a total of five burners: three main burners, an infrared bottom and back burner, and a gas side burner. Use the gas burners to heat the flat top grills and grill racks and use coals to add that distinct charcoal flavour to your dishes!

Ibrido top - Hybrid barbecue gas/charcoal

The pleasure of grilling on an actual charcoal fire and the convenience of grilling and cooking on gas. Both are possible with the Boretti Ibrido Top. The Ibrido Top is perfect for building into or onto an existing or new outdoor kitchen. You can prepare any kind of dish on the Ibrido Top, as the barbecue has three main burners, a gas side burner, an infrared back burner, two cast iron grill racks, and a cast iron flat top grill. The barbecue is equipped with a spacious gas grill surface, as well as a spacious coal unit. In addition, the integrated thermometer in the lid means you always get the barbecue the right temperature.

Terzo - Charcoal barbecue

The Terzo is one of the newest additions to the Collezione Fuori. With the Terzo charcoal barbecue, we are going 'back to basics', but with added optimal quality. It's an all-rounder, but in compact miniature form. The barbecue is lightweight and features carrying handles, making it easy to move around. Ideal for grilling on the beach, while camping, or in the park!

The durable lid is made of high-quality steel and contains an integrated thermometer. This way, the temperature can be controlled perfectly. Furthermore, the Terzo has an easily extendable coal tray, so you can replace the coal in an instant. Give your dishes a new flavour sensation with this trendy barbecue with industrial look!

Firesmiths

Hero Smoker & Grill

The Firesmiths Hero Smoker & Grill gives you generous smoking as well as braai capacity thanks to its large grill surface, internal cooking chamber and hanging food method.

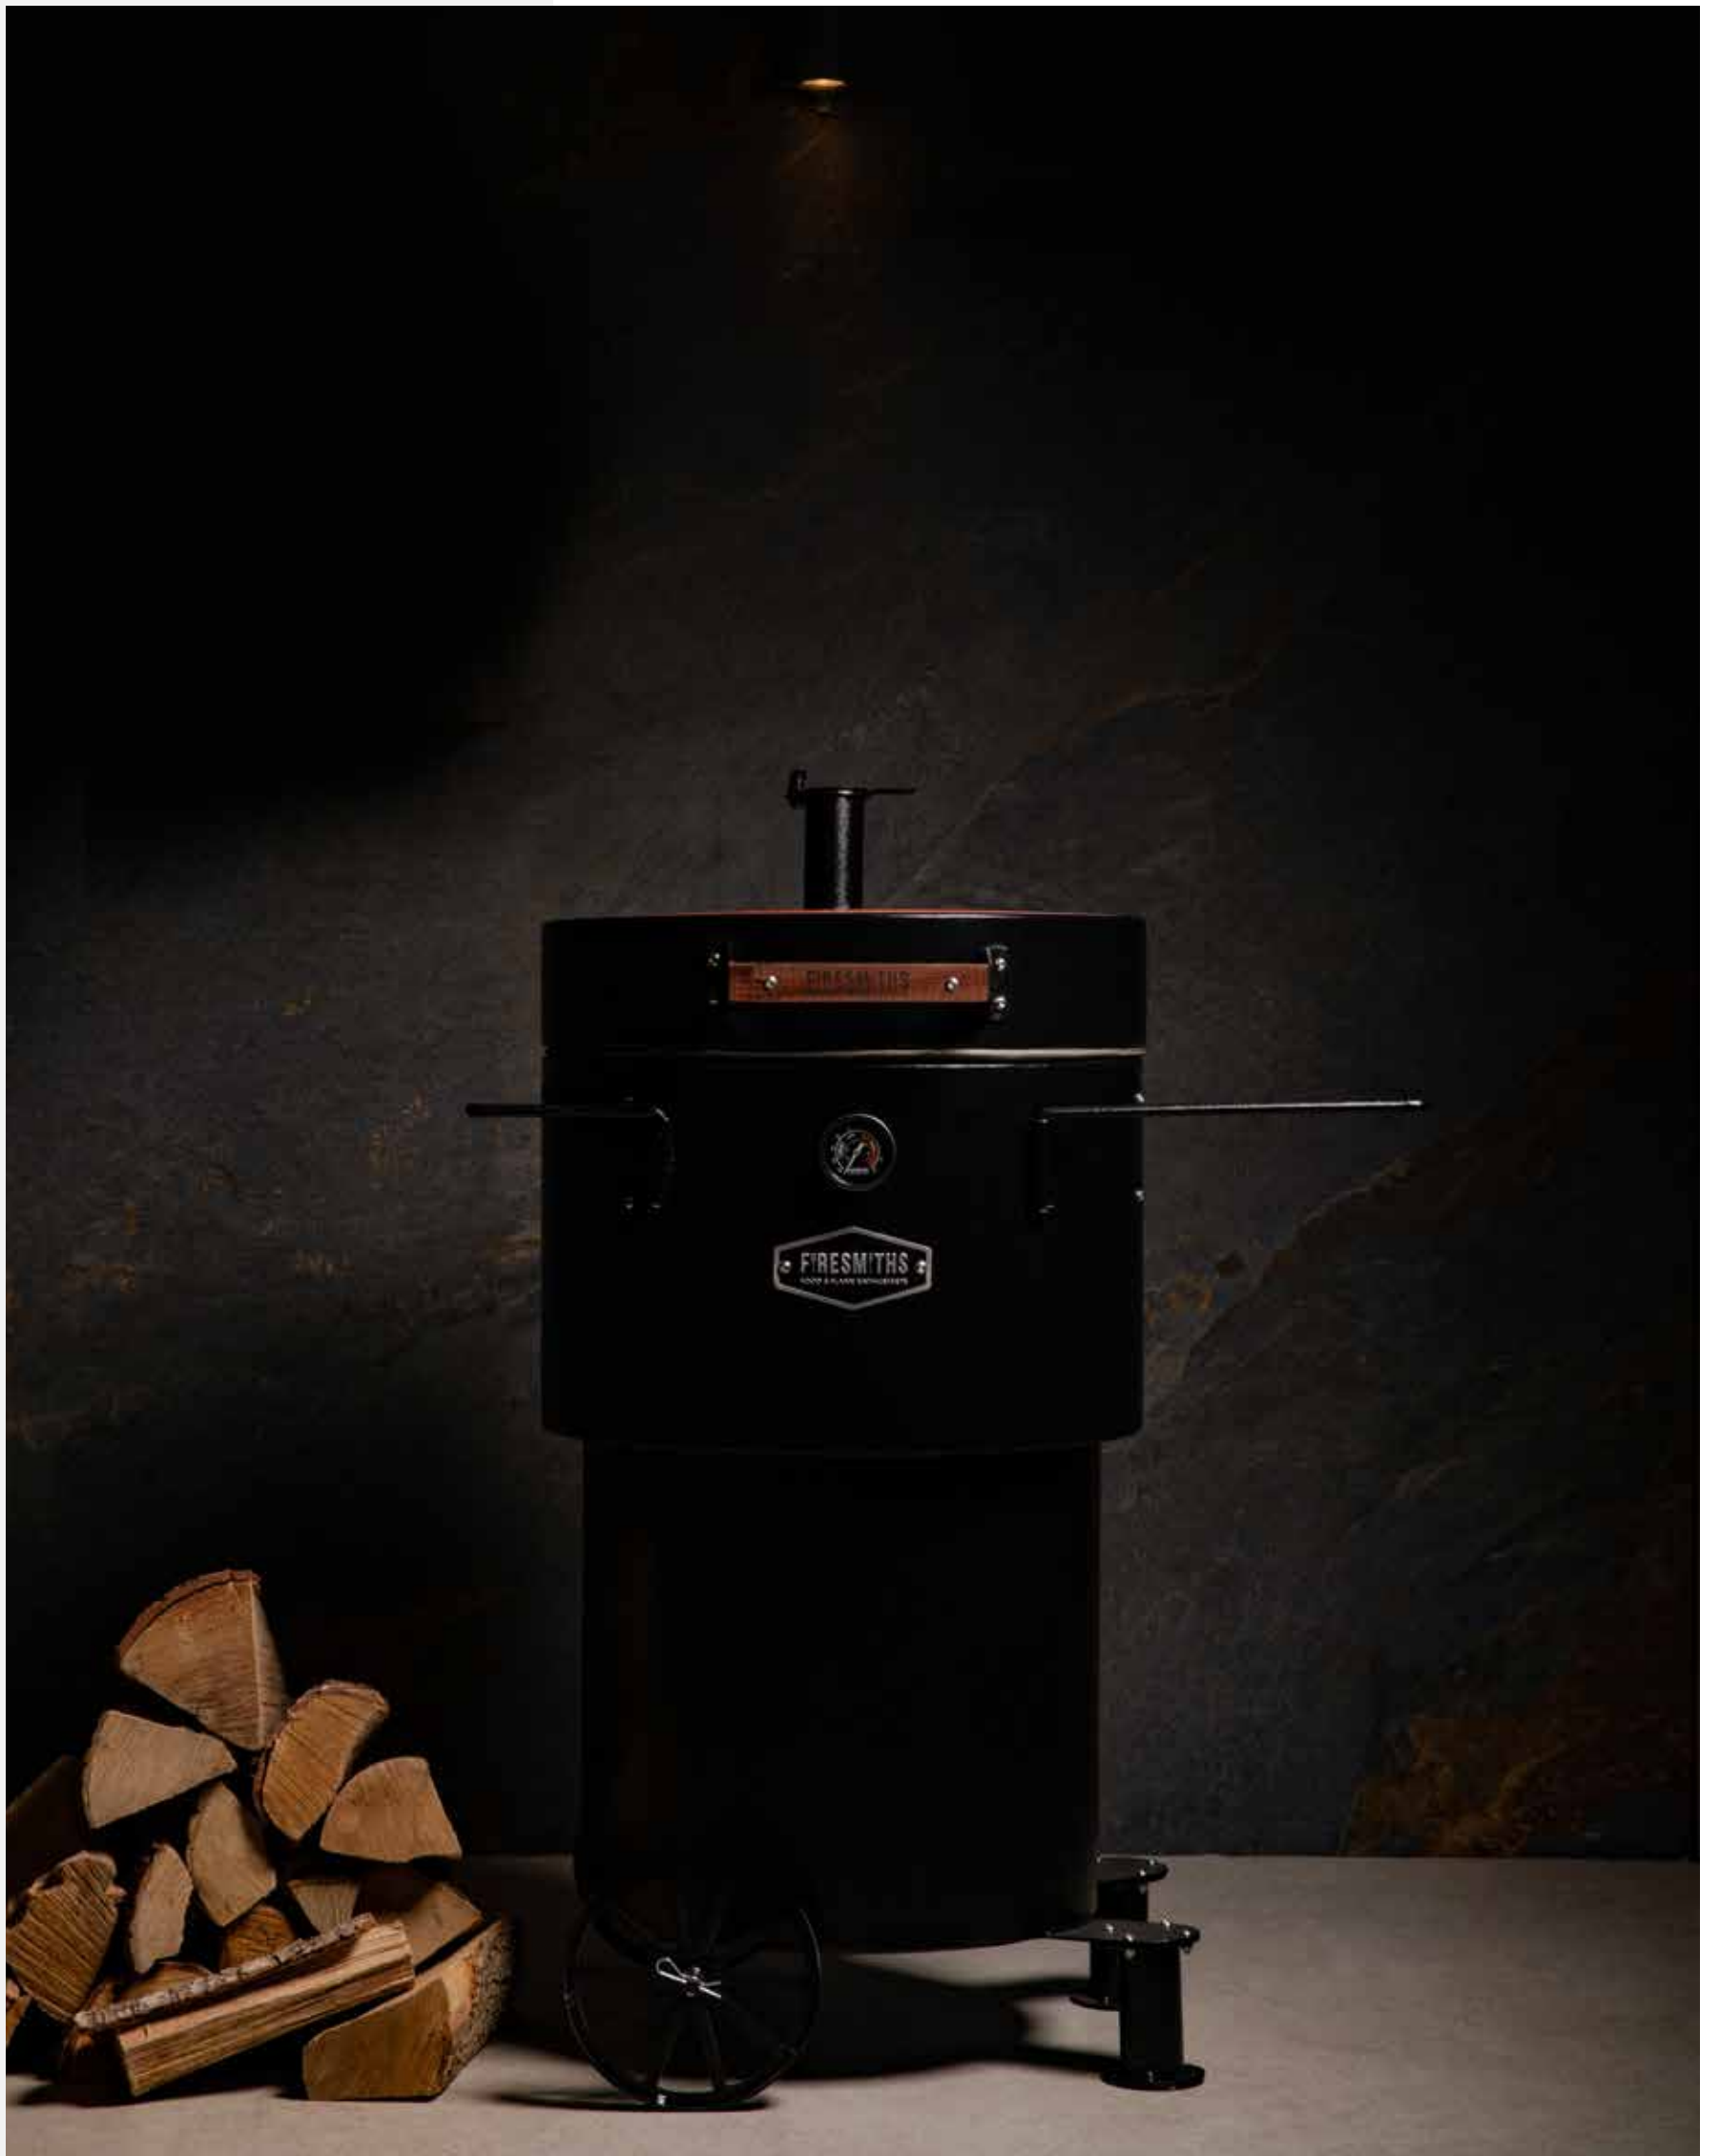

You will be astonished of how much food you can fit into your Hero Smoker & Grill! Coupled with our unique design and 360 heat dynamics™ system you will find it incredibly easy to regulate the temperature of your cooking to your liking and achieve that perfectly cooked, tender, juicy and more flavourful taste every time!

We have also made sure to design a large size charcoal basket with enough charcoal or briquettes capacity to keep you cooking for hours! Clean-up is also an absolute breeze thanks to the removeable ash-pan that catches any burnt-through charcoal.

Switch easily between smoking, grilling or both at the same time and get ready to hang lots of ribs, legs of lamb, chicken, vegetables as well as the ability to grill & smoke seafood, steaks, pizza and so much more! Thanks to Hero Smoker & Grill's modular design, you can quickly switch between direct & indirect heat as you need to. It's truly the most versatile braai, smoker and pizza oven that you can own and will allow you to cook low & slow or hot & fast for years to come!

Everything you need to cook right out of the box is included so you can start to enjoy your Hero Smoker & Grill immediately and our range of optional accessories is there to further aid you in becoming a true smoking and braai master.

Igneus

Outdoor Wood Fire Oven

Classico

The Igneus Classico is our most popular oven for the garden due to its size. Its' 60cm x 60cm internal area cooks two 12" pizzas at a time and can even fit two roasting tins in at once!

Bambino

The Igneus Bambino is perfect for the garden and has a 50cm x 50cm internal area, is fully insulated & can cook a pizza as well as Sunday roasts, bread, lasagnes and much more.

Minimo

The Igneus Minimo is our 'go anywhere' wood fired pizza oven. It's big enough to cook a 12" pizza as well as a roast chicken and weighs just 15kg, so it can even go on holiday with you!

Bystro

Napoli Pizza Oven

Contemporary, eye-catching, easy to use, and highly durable, the Napoli is one of BYSTRO's finest products. Turn the heat up on your outdoor cooking experience with the gas-induced pizza oven of tomorrow and bring out the feeling of wood-burned Italian familiarity in an alfresco setup within minutes!
