INTRODUCTION

With over 10 years of teaching experience, Tychr is committed to expanding horizons for students through its state of the art teaching methodology. In addition to educational excellence, we strive to develop individuals that exhibit impeccable personal and professional integrity.

At TYCHR, we understand the importance of standardized tests like the ACT and SAT in the college admissions process. That's why we offer comprehensive ACT and SAT tutoring services designed to help students maximize their scores and unlock their full potential. Our experienced tutors provide personalized guidance, targeted strategies, and rigorous practice sessions to ensure that students feel confident and well-prepared on test day.

But our commitment to your success doesn't stop there. We also offer expert college counseling services to guide you through the complex journey of university admissions. Our team of knowledgeable counselors is dedicated to helping you navigate the application process, identify the best-fit colleges and universities, and create a compelling application that highlights your unique strengths and achievements.

Our Approach

We believe in a Result-oriented methodology and therefore understand and give importance to the dependency of the standardized tests or college counseling on college admissions. Our Adaptive teaching methodology addresses the unique needs of each student and ensures a personalized teaching experience.

WHAT IS COLLEGE COUNSELING?

Tychr helps students with every step of the college application process, including researching institutions, writing personal essays, completing applications, and developing a waitlist plan. For starters, we learn everything we can about you. The information you provide here will have a significant impact on your submission, so please be thorough. We employ a novel method of school selections and timetable administration. Tychr Admissions can provide you with a customized service plan.

The college application process involves several essential components, which include:

1. Taking standardized tests
2. Writing personal statements
3. Collecting letters of recommendation
4. Filling out applications

College counseling is a comprehensive service that assists students with every step of the college application process. This includes:

- Researching institutions
- Writing personal essays
- Completing applications
- Application strategy

Additionally, college counseling may encompass the following services:

- Test preparation
- Student-athlete and leadership mentoring
- Essay support
- University admissions counseling

Here are a few reasons why a tutor might be helpful:

- Counselors assist students in achieving their goals by understanding universities' requirements and shaping their applications accordingly.
- TYCHR provides comprehensive support throughout the college application process, including researching institutions, crafting personal essays, completing applications, and developing effective strategies.
- The college counseling services offered by TYCHR are facilitated by tutors who are graduates or current students from prestigious universities in the UK and the US, ensuring they are well-equipped to offer guidance.
- TYCHR offers assistance in reviewing college application essays and connecting students with a counselor to receive personalized feedback and advice.

Stay ahead of your class by being prepared:

TYCHR offers college counseling services to support students throughout the entire college application process. While the timeline may vary, here is a general outline that students can follow:

1. Freshman and sophomore years: Focus on building a strong academic foundation, exploring interests, and engaging in extracurricular activities.
2. Junior year: Begin researching colleges, preparing for standardized tests, and developing a strategy for college applications. TYCHR can provide assistance with standardized test preparation and application strategies.
3. Summer before senior year: Utilize this time for college visits, attending summer programs, and working on college essays. TYCHR can offer essay support during this phase.
4. Fall of senior year: Finalize the college list, complete applications, and submit them before the deadlines. TYCHR can assist with application completion and connecting students with a counselor.
5. Spring of senior year: Receive admission decisions and make the final decision on which college to attend. TYCHR can provide guidance through university admissions counseling.

WHAT DOES COLLEGE COUNSELLING AT TYCHR PROVIDE?

Career Options

Students who participate in counselling programmes have the opportunity to have access to specialised knowledge regarding their potential future pathways, which is a significant advantage. Additionally, it supports students in discovering what they are strong at and how they can most effectively utilise those abilities to apply to the colleges of their choice.

Most Up-To-Date Information

At our college counselling company, we are committed to providing our clients with the most current and relevant information available. We understand that the college application process can be overwhelming, with numerous deadlines, requirements, and regulations to keep track of.

The X-Factor

It takes more than good grades to stand us among other applicants to a prestigious university. A guidance counsellor can assist you in organizing the remainder of your application to best highlight your unique qualities through essays, extracurriculars, and recommendations.

HERE'S WHY TYCHR STANDS OUT FOR COLLEGE ADMISSIONS:

- Personalized and Comprehensive Support: TYCHR offers personalized and comprehensive services to guide students through the university admissions process. From college selection and application strategy to mentoring and essay assistance, our experienced counselors provide tailored guidance that highlights each student's unique qualities and maximizes their chances of success.
- Expert Essay Support: Crafting impactful essays is a crucial aspect of the college admissions process. TYCHR offers two valuable services in this area. Firstly, we provide full essay writing assistance, helping you brainstorm ideas, develop engaging narratives, and refine your writing. Secondly, we offer essay editing services, ensuring that your essays are polished, cohesive, and effectively convey your story to admissions officers.
- Application Review: Submitting a strong and error-free application is vital for success. TYCHR's application review service helps students by carefully examining their completed applications, identifying any areas of improvement, and providing detailed feedback. Our experts ensure that your application is comprehensive, well-organized, and free from errors or omissions, maximizing your chances of standing out to admissions committees.
