

Business Acquisitions and New Product Idea Submissions

A Legacy of Growth and Opportunity Since its inception in 1948, Checker Distributors has evolved from a small basement operation into a leading force in the distribution of notions, fabrics, and quilting supplies, servicing retailers worldwide with a commitment to same-day shipping and unparalleled customer service. Founded on the principles of perseverance, innovation, and a steadfast commitment to our customers, Checker has navigated through decades of industry changes, continually adapting and expanding its product offerings to meet and exceed the demands of a dynamic market.

As we reflect on our rich history, from the humble beginnings to our expansive facilities in Maumee, Ohio, we recognize that our success has been fueled not only by our dedication to service but also through strategic partnerships and acquisitions. Our journey has been marked by significant milestones, including partnerships with leading brands like Creative Grids UK, Karen Kay Buckley Products and The Gypsy Quilter™, expansions of our product lines, and enhancements to our distribution capabilities. These achievements underscore our ongoing commitment to innovation and excellence.

Seeking New Opportunities for Mutual Success Today, Checker Distributors stands at the forefront of the industry, ready to embark on the next phase of our growth. We are actively seeking to acquire businesses within the notions, fabrics, and craft supplies sectors. Our interest extends to manufacturers that align with our mission to deliver quality products and exceptional service to the global marketplace. We believe that through strategic acquisitions, we can offer even more value to our customers, extend our product range, and enhance our operational efficiencies.

Our approach to acquisitions is grounded in a philosophy of mutual success. We are committed to fostering positive and seamless transitions for businesses joining the Checker family, ensuring that their legacy, brand, and values are respected and integrated into our operations. Our experienced team, backed by state-of-the-art technology and a robust distribution network, is poised to support the growth and success of acquired businesses.

A Partnership for the Future Joining forces with Checker means becoming part of a family-owned company that values relationships, innovation, and a shared vision for the future. As we look ahead, our goal is not just to grow our company, but to elevate the entire industry, bringing new products, technologies, and services to market that will benefit our customers and partners alike.

If you are considering the sale of your business, or if you are looking for a partner to help take your company to the next level, we would love to hear from you. Together, we can build on our shared heritage of success and craft a future that is even more vibrant and prosperous.

Contact Us to Explore Opportunities For more information about partnering with Checker Distributors contact our acquisitions team directly at bkrieger@checkerdist.com. We look forward to exploring how we can achieve mutual success and continue to serve our customers with excellence for generations to come.

New Product Idea Submissions If you don't have a business to sell, but you do have ideas for new product development we can also be your source for manufacturing. We work with dozens of product designers who have approached us with ideas for Creative Grids® and Gypsy Quilte® products. We assist in the final design of the product and pay the designers a royalty on all the sales. Please contact cginfo@checkerdist.com if you have an idea you'd like us to explore.

Thank you for considering a partnership with Checker Distributors. Let's create a future filled with opportunity, innovation, and success.