The Seven shall take the Six,
and the Six shall take the Five,
And we shall all be merry boys,
as now we're all alive. Here's &c.

The five shall take the Four,
and the Four shall take the Three,
And we shall all be merry boys,
as now we all agree. Here's to you, &c.

The Three shall take the two,
and the Two shall take the One,
And we shall all be merry boys,
as now our song is done.
Here's to you Tom Broun, &c.

CHARMING SALLY.

CAN the weak taper's feeble rays,
Or lamp's transmit the sun's bright blaze,
Oh! no—Then say, how Shall I
In words, be able to express

My love it burns to such excess?
I almost die for Sally.

When late I wandered o'er the plain,
From nymph to nymph I strove in vain,
My wild desires to rally,
But now they're of themselves come home,
And strange! no longer seek to roam,
They center all in Sally.
