

Alpha Broder Canada ULC - Multi-Year Accessibility Plan

Introduction and Statement of Commitment

The Ontario government passed the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) in 2005. It is the goal of the government of Ontario to make Ontario accessible by 2025. Alpha Broder Canada ULC (“Alpha Broder”) is committed to complying with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 and all of the applicable standards under it in order to meet the accessibility needs of persons with disabilities in a timely manner.

The regulations associated with the Integrated Accessibility Standards (hereafter referred to as the “IASR”) under the AODA require that effective January 1, 2014, Alpha Broder establish, implement, maintain and document a multi-year accessibility plan which outlines the organization’s strategy to prevent and remove barriers for persons with disabilities and to meet its requirements under the Act.

Under the AODA, the following accessibility standards set certain requirements that are applicable to Alpha Broder:

- Customer Service;
- Information and Communications; and
- Employment

This multi-year plan outlines Alpha Broder’s strategy to prevent and remove barriers to address the current and future requirements of the AODA.

In accordance with the requirements set out in the IASR, Alpha Broder will:

- Post this plan on the company of business website (www.ashcity.com);
- Provide this plan in an accessible format, upon request; and
- Review and update this plan at least once every five years

Accessibility Standards for Customer Service Commitment:

The Accessibility Standards for the Customer Service Regulation were created to establish accessibility standards for customer service in Ontario. In keeping with this regulation, the organization is committed to providing respectful services that focus on the unique needs of the individual.

To achieve this, the organization makes reasonable efforts to ensure that its policies, procedures and practices pertaining to the provision of goods and services to the public and other third parties adhere to the following guiding principles as set out in Accessibility Standards for Customer Service: Ontario Regulation 429/07.

- Our goods and services must be provided in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities.
- The provision of our goods or services to persons with disabilities and others must be integrated unless an alternate measure is necessary, whether temporarily or on a permanent basis, to enable a person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from the goods or services.
- Persons with disabilities must be given an opportunity equal to that given to others to obtain, use and benefit from the goods or services.

Alpha Broder has been in compliance with the Accessible Customer Service Regulation under the AODA since January 1, 2012.

Action Taken:

The following measures have been implemented by Alpha Broder:

- Ensuring all persons who, on behalf of Alpha Broder, deal with the public or other third parties, and all those who are involved in the development and approvals of customer service policies, practices and procedures, as well as all others providing services to our customers, are trained to communicate and provide the best possible customer service to all customers, including persons with disabilities;
- Ensuring staff are trained and familiar with various assistive devices that may be used by customers with disabilities who are accessing Alpha Broder's goods or services;
- Ensuring completion of accessibility training is tracked and recorded;
- Ensuring customers accompanied by a guide dog or other service animal in areas of Alpha Broder open to the public and other third parties, are accommodated;
- Ensuring that if a person with a disability is accompanied by a support person, the support person is accommodated;
- Continuing to welcome and appreciate feedback from persons with disabilities through multiple communication methods;
- Reporting compliance with the customer service standard on the Accessibility Compliance Reporting tool at ServiceOntario's One-Source for Business website.

Commitment:

Alpha Broder is committed to complying with the provisions of the AODA in respect of this requirement, with the objective of informing employees of available accessibility supports.

Planned Action:

In accordance with the IASR Alpha Broder will:

- Inform its employees of its policies used to support its employees with disabilities, including, but not limited to, policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability.
- Provide the information required to new employees as soon as practicable after they begin their employment.
- Provide updated information to its employees whenever there is a change to existing policies on the provision of job accommodations that take into account an employee's accessibility needs due to disability.
- Where an employee with a disability requests it, consult with the employee to provide or arrange for the provision of accessible formats and communication supports for:
 - Information that is needed in order to perform the employee's job; and
 - Information that is generally available to employees in the workplace.
 - Alpha Broder will consult with the employee making the request in determining the suitability of an accessible format or communication support.

Required compliance date: January 1, 2016

Status: Ongoing

c. Documented Individual Accommodation Plans/Return to Work Process

Commitment:

Alpha Broder is committed to complying with the provisions of the AODA in respect of this requirement with the objective of improving accommodation and return to work processes in the workplace.

Planned Action:

Alpha Broder's existing policies will be reviewed to include processes that Alpha Broder will follow to accommodate an employee with a disability and to facilitate an employee's return to work after absenteeism due to disability.

Alpha Broder will review and assess the existing policies to ensure that they include a process for the development of documented individual accommodation plans for employees with a disability, if such plans are required.

Alpha Broder will ensure that the process for the development of documented individual accommodation plans includes the following elements:

- The manner in which an employee requesting accommodation can participate in the development of the individual accommodation plan.

- The means by which the employee is assessed on an individual basis.
- The manner in which Alpha Broder can request an evaluation by an outside medical or other expert, at Alpha Broder's expense, to assist Alpha Broder in determining if accommodation can be achieved and, if so, how accommodation can be achieved.
- The steps taken to protect the privacy of the employee's personal information.
- The frequency with which the individual accommodation plan will be reviewed and updated and the manner in which it will be done.
- If an individual accommodation plan is denied, the manner in which the reasons for the denial will be provided to the employee.
- The means of providing the individual accommodation plan in a format that takes into account the employee's accessibility needs due to disability.

Individual accommodation plans will:

- If requested, include any information regarding accessible formats and communications supports provided, as required in the Standard;
- If required, include individualized workplace emergency response information, as required in the Standard; and
- Identify any other accommodation that is to be provided.

Required compliance date: January 1, 2016

Status: Ongoing
