B. COMPLIANCE

These Rules of Auction comply with Section 45 of the CPA, No. 68 of 2008 and the Regulations contained therein applicable to auctions. An extract of Section 45 of the Act appears below: it includes Rules of Auction, the specific Rules of Auction and those applicable to the CPA.

Section 45: Auctions

- (1) In this section “auction” includes a sale in execution of or pursuant to a court order, to the extent that the order contemplates that the sale is to be conducted by an auction. “auction” shall include online auctions.
- (2) When goods are put up for sale by auction in lots, each lot is, unless there is evidence to the contrary, regarded to be the subject of a separate transaction.
- (3) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer, or in any other customary manner, and until that announcement is made, a bid may be retracted. For online auctions a sale is completed once the sold sign appears, up until this point a bid may be placed, once a bid is placed it is no longer retractable.
- (4) Notice must be given in advance that a sale by auction is subject to-
 - (a) A reserved or upset price; or a right to bid by or on behalf of the owner or auctioneer, in which case the owner or auctioneer, or anyone one person on behalf of the owner or auctioneer, as the case maybe, may bid at the auction.
 - (b) In online auctions lots that have a reserve price are labelled STC pending
- (5) Unless notice is given in advance that a sale by auction is subject to a right to bid by or on behalf of the owner or auctioneer –
 - (a) the owner or auctioneer must not bid or employ any person to bid at the sale;
 - (b) the auctioneer must not knowingly accept any bid from a person contemplated in paragraph (a); and

- (c) the consumer may approach a court to declare the transaction fraudulent, if this sub-section has been violated.
- (6) The Minister may prescribe requirement to be complied with by an auctioneer, or different categories of auctioneer, in respect of-
- (a) the conduct of an auction;
 - (b) the records to be maintained with respect to property placed for auction; and
 - (c) the sale of any such property by auction.

The Rules of Auction have been signed by the auctioneer conducting the auction, and meets the requirements of regulation 21 of the CPA.

C. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Rules of Auction, including the general rules, specific rules, notice to bidders and all announcements made by the auctioneer at the commencement and during the course of the auction, whether or not the bidder is online on the chosen electronic platform at the time such announcements are made, collectively referred to as the "Rules of Auction" are the complete and final record of the rules of the auction and unless any warranties, undertakings or representations are set out herein, they are excluded.

The Rules of Auction in their entirety shall form the basis of the bidding and bargaining carried out between the auctioneer and the bidders, and shall also govern the rules of each sale so concluded.

Sub-regulation 21 (8) (a) states that the Rules of Auction need not to be read out in their entirety at the auction to be valid, as long as they were made available to the general public at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the auction, either in printed format from the auctioneers' place of business or electronically from the auctioneers' website.

The act of not reading the Rules of Auction in their entirety and highlighting selected clauses for special mention at the auction should; in no way, be construed as an omission or admission that the Rules of Auction are not important.

The act of registering for the auction, signing the bidders' record and participation by any bidder in the auction shall be taken as confirmation that the bidder has read, understood, accepts and is bound by the Rules of Auction.

The auction and all matters connected with the auction including the Rules of Auction are governed by and constructed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa and the bidder, including foreign bidders consent to the jurisdiction of the South African courts.

For purposes of legal proceedings, the bidder shall be deemed to have selected and appointed as his/her domicilium citandi et executandi the address recorded by him or her in the bidders record upon registration.

The auctioneer shall be entitled to institute legal proceedings in any court having jurisdiction against the purchaser to recover the settlement contemplated in clauses 4.3 herein, and any legal costs, disbursements and charges calculated on the basis of an Attorney and own client scale.

D. GENERAL RULES OF AUCTION

1. Pre-Requisites of the Consumer Protection Act and Regulations

- 1.1. The auction was advertised in compliance with regulations 19 and 20 of the CPA, and the advertisement was placed in such a manner that the general public has had a reasonable opportunity to become aware of the auction, the goods on offer and the rules governing the auction.
- 1.2. Section 45(2) of the CPA prescribes if goods are put up for sale by auction in lots, each lot is, unless there is evidence to the contrary, regarded to be the subject of a separate transaction.
- 1.3. The auction will commence at the published time and will not be delayed to enable any specific person or more persons in general to take part in the auction.
- 1.4. Sub-regulation 26(2) of the CPA prescribes that every prospective bidder must, prior to the commencement of an auction, register his or her identity in the bidders' record, providing his or her positive identification, juristic registration documents, and proof of residence in terms of the Financial Intelligence Act (FICA), No. 31 of 2001.
- 1.5. Sub-regulation 26 (3) of the CPA declares that if a person intends to bid on behalf of another, he or she must produce a letter of authority expressly authorizing him or her to bid on behalf of that person, and both that person and the person bidding on his or her behalf must meet the requirements of sub-regulation 26(2) of the CPA.
- 1.6. Sub-regulation 26 (4) of the CPA states that if a person described in clause 1.5 intends to bid on behalf of a company, the letter of authority contemplated therein must appear on the letterhead of the company and must be accompanied by a certified copy of the resolution authorizing him or her to do so.
- 1.7. Sub-regulation 28 (1) of the CPA prescribes that all prospective bidders whose names appear in the bidders' record will be issued with a digital bidder number for online auctions.

1.8. Sub-regulation 26(5) of the CPA states that the bidders' record will be available for public inspection in respect of the names of bidders and bidders' numbers only, at any time, free of charge:

1.8.1. Bidder's record will be available online through a clients bid history on the online profile. Alternatively, bidders record can be requested at any time, free of charge from any Auction Nation branch.

1.9. Sub-regulation 28(4) of the CPA states that the auctioneer will keep a vendor's roll in which all details prescribed therein will be recorded. The vendor's roll will be available for public inspection at any time, free of charge. This will also be applicable to online auctions.

1.10. Sub-regulation 21(2) (h) of the CPA, states that the auctioneer has trust accounts into which all monies are paid for the benefit of the seller, minus the agreed commission and costs in accordance with sub regulation 21(2)(h) of the CPA.

2. Admission and Registration

2.1. The right of admission to the auction is reserved.

4. General Auction Procedures

- 4.1. The auctioneer conducts the auction as an agent, on behalf of the seller, and accepts no liability whatsoever. In the event of any disputes, the purchaser shall only have a claim against the seller, unless such disputes are as a result of the auctioneer's gross negligence or conduct.;
- 4.2. In the event of an auction subject to a reserved or upset price, and provided notice has been given in advance in terms of section 45(4) of the CPA, the seller or the auctioneer, or any other person on behalf of the seller, or the auctioneer, as the case maybe, may bid at the auction up to the reserve price but not exceeding the reserve price.
- 4.3. In the event of an absolute or auction without reserve, the auction will be conducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation 20(18) and (19) of the CPA. In particular goods will not be offered or sold at an absolute or auction without reserve unless there is a bona fide intention at the time of advertising and at the time of the auction to sell the goods and transfer ownership of the goods, regardless of the amount of the highest and last bid, to the highest bidder, without any requirement for a minimum bid, and without allowing competing bids of any type by the seller, or any agent of the seller. In addition, the seller of the goods cannot withdraw the goods from the auction after the auction is opened and there is public solicitation or calling for bids at an absolute or auction without reserve.

- 4.4. A secured party or other lien holder or any individual party who is not a seller is not prohibited from bidding at an auction without reserve, provided such bidding does not constitute, nor is tantamount to the direct or indirect establishment or agreement to the establishment of a reserve price for the goods by the seller, or the auctioneer, or anyone aiding or assisting, or acting on behalf of the seller, or the auctioneer as the case may be.
- 4.5. Sub-regulation 20(19)(d) of the CPA permits certain goods to be offered with reserve and others offered absolute or without reserve at the same auction, and at the same time, provided non-misleading advertisement's make it clear, through appropriate emphasis, which goods are offered by each method.
- 4.6. The control of the auction shall be conducted by the auctioneer, who has the sole right to regulate the bidding process and control the bid increments.
- 4.7. The auctioneer has the right to withdraw any vehicle scheduled to be auctioned.
- 4.8. The auctioneer may only sell to registered bidders. No bid will be taken from unregistered persons without bidder numbers as prescribed by subregulations 24(h) and 28(2) of the CPA.
- 4.9. In terms of section 55(1) of the CPA, goods are sold "voetstoots", as is, with no guarantees or warranties; express or implied. Bidders are entitled at no fee to inspect the goods on offer prior to the commencement of the auction in accordance with sub-regulation 28(5) of the CPA. Bidders on Online auctions will be able to view 360-degree pictures of the vehicle for inspection as well have the option to visit the branch the vehicle is located at and physically inspect the vehicle prior to the auction should they choose to. A bid shall be taken as proof that the bidder has inspected the goods and/or has satisfied himself/herself with the condition of the goods for which he or she bids.

- 4.10. All vehicles which are auctioned are sold as 'motor salvage' irrespective of their appearance or condition.
- 4.11. Bidders must direct their bids to the auctioneer or official bid assistants. The practice whereby bidders connive, suppress prices or intimidate other bidders is prohibited.
- 4.12. Every bid constitutes a firm offer to purchase the goods or lots on offer for the amount bid. The bidder is permitted, in terms of section 45(3) of the CPA, to retract his or her bid before the hammer falls or the auctioneer concludes bidding in any customary manner.
- 4.13. The purchaser shall be the highest bidder. Should any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot or lots shall be put up again for auction and resold; or the auctioneer may, after consultation, declare the buyer. The decision of the auctioneer shall be final and binding.
- 4.14. Sub-regulation 28(6) of the CPA provides that subject to any reserved price and acceptance of the highest bid by the owner or the seller, the highest bidder, when the auctioneer announces the completion of a sale by the fall of the hammer, or any other customary manner, is the purchaser of the goods or lots on auction. Should any dispute arise between two or more bidders regarding the identity of the highest bidder and purchaser, the decision of the auctioneer shall be final and binding.
- 4.15. In the event where the reserved price is not met in terms of regulation 28(6) and the seller has to accept or decline the highest bid after the completion of the auction, the highest bidder is bound by the auction rules and shall not have the opportunity to withdraw his bid until the seller has confirmed the sale or the stipulated acceptance period has expired. Negotiations between the highest bidder and the seller may arise during such acceptance period, and should any subsequent bids be received during such acceptance period, the new bidder will register in terms of the rules of auction applicable to the auction, and will have only one opportunity to submit a higher bid. The highest bidder of the first instance shall have the sole right of refusal to equal or better such subsequent bid obtained. Any goods or lots knocked provisionally to the highest bidder subject to approval by the seller in terms of this clause 4.15 is deemed not to be sold in terms of section 45(3) and sub regulation 28(6) of the CPA, until the seller has accepted the offer.

- 4.16. Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 4.13 above, and subject to the provisions of clause 4.3, the owner or the seller, reserve the ultimate right, apart from the auctioneer, to fix a minimum bid for acceptance and to decline to sell to the highest or any bidder, or even to accept any lower bid, without giving any reasons.
- 4.17. The auctioneer, with the approval of the owner or the seller, reserves the right, at any time, to stop the auction, to reject any or all bids and to withdraw any goods or lots, or part thereof from the auction, either before or during the auction, without giving any reasons and without attracting any liability for such action.
- 4.18. Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulation 24(i) of the CPA, goods or lots may be grouped or divided with the unanimous consent of all bidders.
- 4.19. In the event of an auction sale requiring the consent of any statutory authority or any Court of Law, then the conclusion of the auction sale is subject to the granting of such consent.
- 4.20. Buyers are not permitted to enter into any transaction on Government premises. In particular, the re-auctioning of goods by bidders is prohibited within the premises of the auctioneer or the seller.
- 4.21. All vehicles are sold in the same condition as they are in at the time of the sale.
- 4.22. Lots on sale are by voluntary surrender by their respective owners, save and except bank repossessions which are identified on your catalogue by the word "FICA". Vehicles on sale at Auction Nation are from short term insurers with supplements unless the contrary is indicated.

- 4.23. There are vehicles which are sold with a reserve price and can be identified where the vehicle is marked "Subject to Confirmation" (STC). The Auctioneer or his agent shall be entitled to bid up to the Reserve Price on behalf of the owner but shall not be entitled to make a bid exceeding the Reserve Price. STC will be confirmed within 24 (twenty-four) hours after the auction.
- 4.24. Any error by the Auctioneer shall be entitled to be corrected by him.
- 4.25. No bid may be withdrawn after the fall of the hammer if the auction is subject to a reserve price until the expiry of the confirmation period that is provided for in the Rules of Auction, during which time the offer shall be open for acceptance by the Seller or his agent and if the offer is accepted, the sale shall be deemed to be a sale by auction for purposes of the Act.
- 4.26. The purchaser acknowledges that he/she has inspected the vehicle(s), has acquainted himself/herself with the condition of the vehicle(s) and is aware of the fact that the condition of the vehicle(s) is such that it may be in need of repair in order to be driven safely in compliance with the relevant statutes, or at all.
- 4.27. The purchaser acknowledges that neither the seller of the vehicle(s), nor any Auction Nation representative warranted or guaranteed, or made any representations regarding the condition or state of any vehicle sold.
- 4.28. Additional costs which will be for the purchaser's account will include: (1) any repairs to the vehicle whether specified or not at the time of the auction (2) keys, if none at time of sale (3) spare wheel and battery, if none at time of sale (4) additional storage, (5) removal of vehicle/s from premises (6) licensing (7) police clearance fees, where applicable. (8) any repairs to the vehicle whether specified or not at the time of the auction;
- 4.29. All vehicles which are auctioned have Codes, which are described as follows:

4.29.1. Code 2 - widely described as a "Used Vehicle", can be in a damaged state.

4.29.2. Code 3 - widely described as a "Rebuilt Vehicle", can be in a damaged state.

4.29.3. Code 4 - is a "Permanently Demolished Vehicle". This vehicle may only be purchased for parts and cannot be repaired or driven.

5. Financial Arrangements

5.1. Once goods or lots have been sold to the purchaser without reserve or confirmed by the owner or seller in an auction with reserve, the sale of the goods or lots is irrevocable and cannot be withdrawn. The purchaser shall be liable for the settlement of such purchases failing which the auctioneer, the seller or the owner, reserves the right to obtain the relief it is entitled to, including the amount paid, interest if applicable, legal costs and collection costs.

5.2. Ownership and title will only be transferred upon full settlement as contemplated in clause 5.3 hereunder.

5.3. In regard to movable goods, settlement for goods or lots purchased as contemplated in clause 5.1 herein, including advertised fees and commission, is payable. Should the auction finish after banking hours, purchases must be settled within 72 hours of date of auction or the first working day after the day of the auction where the day after falls on a weekend or statutory public holiday.

5.4. Auctions are cash transactions and not subject to any suspensive conditions such as the granting of finance to the purchaser. Therefore, bidders intending to finance their purchases must obtain irrevocable approval or guarantee from their sponsors prior to the commencement of the auction, so that they will be able to fulfil the settlement requirements contained in clause 5.3.

- 5.5. In line with clause 5.4 above, payment terms regarding the settlement of purchases in terms of these rules of auction are strictly cash or EFT payable in full, without deduction and free of set off for any claim the purchaser may have against the seller or the owner.
- 5.6. All payments must be made in South African ZAR currency, into the specific Trust account nominated by the auctioneer for each auction and provided to the purchaser in the Notice to Bidders forming part of these rules of auction.
- 5.7. In accordance with money laundering regulations and in the interest of security, the auctioneer does not accept cash at its auction sites. Cash deposits must be made at the bank and proof thereof must be presented on site or at the auctioneers' premises. Cash payments shall attract a cash deposit fee determined by the auctioneer from time to time and provided to the purchaser in the Notice to Bidders forming part of these rules of auction.
- 5.8. Should the auction be subject to the payment of Value Added Tax (VAT); all bids will be exclusive of VAT and VAT will be added to the bid price at the rate applicable at the time the auction is conducted. The bid price plus the VAT portion, including any commission and other fees, where applicable, shall constitute the purchase price and shall be due and payable simultaneously.
- 5.9. Invoices will be made out to purchasers who are registered bidders in terms of clauses 1.4 and 1.7 herein. No changes to purchase statements will be allowed, and the splitting of invoices among buyers is prohibited. The registered bidder is responsible for the payment of the full invoice.
- 5.10. Should the purchaser default, the refundable registration deposit will be retained and used to set off part of the forfeit fee contemplated in this clause 5.10
- 5.11. Should the seller reject the purchaser's offer or default for whatever reason, the purchaser will not be charged any fee or commission, and where such fee or commission has already been paid by the purchaser, such fee or commission will immediately be refunded to the purchaser, including the refundable registration deposit. The parties shall have no further obligations under these rules of auction thereafter.

6. FICA

6.1. In accordance with the Financial Intelligence Centre Act (FICA) No. 38 of 2001, no repossessed vehicle will be released until all parties to the transaction, including the bank, have been identified and verified in terms of the requirements of the Act. Auction Nation will only accept original documents or certified copies. No photocopied or faxed documents will be accepted. No exceptions will be made.

7. Removal of vehicle(s)

7.1. If full payment is not received within 72 (Seventy two) hours of date of invoice, storage fees of R172,50 (One hundred and seventy two rand fifty cents) per day per vehicle will be charged. All storage fees, if applicable, must be paid before the vehicle will be released.

7.2. No vehicle(s) will be permitted to be removed during the auction sale. Vehicles will only be permitted to be removed from the premises of Auction Nation from 08h30 until 16h00 during weekdays.

7.3. Vehicle(s) purchased by the purchaser which are on Auction Nation's premises from the time of purchase to the time of collection by the purchaser will be at the purchaser's risk and own account inclusive of any damage or shortages howsoever arising.

7.4. Vehicle(s) may only be removed from Auction Nation's premises by a third party if they have a signed letter of consent from the purchaser, and a certified copy of the purchaser's ID.

7.5. No vehicles may be repaired in any Auction Nation yard or auction venue.

- 7.6. All clients to confirm vehicle details are correct as advertised prior to removal of vehicle from Auction Nation premises. These details include but are not limited to, vehicle code, starter status, year model, description, VIN number, mileage, and state of vehicle.
- 7.7. In instances where a third party transportation service is used by the client, onus falls on the client to confirm all details are correct as stated in point 1 prior to third party company removing vehicle from Auction Nation premises. If transport is arranged via Auction Nation, client to confirm all details are correct as stated in point 1 at destination branch before removal of vehicle.
- 7.8. All details can be validated against the vehicle registration document. If the original document is not present at the branch at the time of collection, a copy can be requested in order to validate the vehicle details.
- 7.9. Auction Nation will in no way be liable for any discrepancies in terms of vehicle code, starter status, year model, description, VIN number, mileage and state of vehicle once vehicle has been removed from the Auction Nation premises.
- 7.10. Auction Nation will in no way be liable for any costs incurred by clients on vehicles removed from the premises such as but not limited to repairs and transportation costs.

8. Registration papers and licensing

- 8.1. The document handling fee charged is a pre-sales administration fee to prepare documents for sale. This is not the fee charged by Licensing authorities to change ownership of the vehicle and license the vehicle in the new purchaser's name. This fee is for the purchaser's account.

- 8.2. Papers will be available upon collection of vehicle or within a reasonable period of time.
- 8.3. Papers will only be given to the person who registered for the auction. Papers will not be issued on a driver's licence. Papers will only be issued on a RSA ID or Traffic Register and Passport, and once full and final payment has been effected.
- 8.4. Notice of Change of Ownership (NCO) documents will be given to the registered purchaser to complete in his/her name only.
- 8.5. Papers will only be given to a third party if they have a signed letter of consent from the purchaser and a certified copy of the purchaser's ID.
- 8.6. In terms of the Road Traffic Act 1989 Regulation 237(1), no person may buy, sell or trade with an unregistered or unlicensed vehicle.
- 8.7. If the purchaser purchases a Code 2, he/she must register the vehicle in his/her name within 21 (twenty-one) days of purchase, as per the Road Traffic Act 1989 Section 14. Code 2 vehicles can be registered before they are repaired.
- 8.8. If the purchaser purchases a Code 3, he/she must first repair his/her vehicle, and then take it for Police Clearance. The purchaser will then be able to register the vehicle in his/her name.
- 8.9. Auction Nation does not auction or sell spare parts, but auctions vehicles as whole units.
- 8.10. A Code 4 vehicle is sold with No Papers and cannot be licensed or rebuilt
- 8.11. Any traffic fines received from vehicles auctioned by Auction Nation, will be transferred onto the purchaser's name and for the purchaser's account.
- 8.12. Date of first registration on the registration papers, is not necessarily the year model.

9. Purchaser Acknowledgments

- 9.1. The purchaser may only bid for the vehicle(s) that he/she is able (physically, financially and legally) to purchase.
- 9.2. The purchaser buys the vehicle(s) as is and in the specific condition that it/they are offered in.
- 9.3. Neither the seller nor Auction Nation have a duty to repair the vehicle(s).
- 9.4. The purchaser acknowledges that the vehicles are salvage vehicles and agrees that the vehicles are sold without any guarantee or warranty (express, implied, common law or statutory) and therefore the purchaser purchases the vehicles at his/her own risk.

10. Sale and Purchase

- 10.1. Both the seller and the purchaser unconditionally accept that Auction Nation has no involvement in the offering, description or sale of the goods and that Auction Nation's role is merely to facilitate the auction and therefore Auction Nation cannot accept any return of goods for any reason whatsoever.
- 10.2. Should the purchaser have any issue with the purchase of the vehicles due to any reason whatsoever, all discussions, interactions and disputes must be directed at the seller.

11. Limitation of Liability and Disclaimer

- 11.1. Notwithstanding what is contained in these terms and conditions, the purchaser will be deemed to accept, acknowledge and agree that Auction Nation will not be held liable to the purchaser for any losses, damages, expenses or harm of whatsoever nature howsoever arising.

12. Breach / Cancellation

12.1. The purchaser cannot cancel any vehicles purchased which he/she has bought. If the purchaser buys one or more vehicles, the purchaser must pay for all his/her vehicles purchased.

12.2. In the event that the full payment of the total purchase price for all vehicles shown on the pro forma invoice has not been paid on due date, or the purchaser cannot comply with FICA, the purchaser will have breached the terms of the auction and deemed to have defaulted on the sale and agrees to the following:

12.2.1. immediate cancellation of the sale(s) without notification to the purchaser.

12.2.2. the purchaser will have no further claim on any of the vehicle(s);

12.2.3. the purchaser may be blacklisted by Auction Nation and such purchaser may be refused permission to participate in any auctions conducted by Auction Nation in the future.

13. General

13.1. All terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

13.2. No provision of the terms and conditions (including, without limitation, the provisions of this clause) may be amended, substituted or otherwise varied, and no provision may be added to or incorporated in this agreement, except (in any such case) by an agreement in writing signed by the duly authorised representatives of the parties.

13.3. Any relaxation, indulgence or delay (together "Indulgence") by either party in exercising, or any failure by either party to exercise, any right under the terms and conditions shall not be construed as a waiver of that right and shall not affect the ability of that party subsequently to exercise that right or to pursue any remedy, nor shall any indulgence constitute a waiver of any other right (whether against that party or any other person).

- 13.4. Except where expressly provided to the contrary in the terms and conditions, these terms and conditions constitute the entire agreement between the parties in connection with its subject matter and supersedes all prior representations, communications, negotiations and understandings concerning the subject matter of the terms and conditions.
- 13.5. The terms and conditions may be executed in any number of identical counterparts, all of which when taken together shall constitute one agreement. Any single counterpart or a set of counterparts taken together which, in either case, are executed by the parties shall constitute a full original of the agreement between the parties for all purposes.

14. Payment

- 14.1. Electronic / Cash transfers only. Please use your Id number or Traffic register as a reference for an auction deposit, and the Reference used on your Pro Forma Invoice if it is for full payment. To expedite release of the vehicle/s purchased by the purchaser it is recommended that the transfer is affected from the purchaser's bank to Auction Nation's bank using the same bank. Motor vehicles will only be released once the payment reflects in Auction Nation's bank account.

The quickest way to pay for your vehicles is by doing either (1) a bank transfer / internet payment or (2) cash deposit, using the Reference on your Pro Forma Invoice, from your bank (e.g., FNB), to our same bank. That is Absa to Absa, FNB to FNB, Nedbank to Nedbank and Standard Bank to Standard Bank.

15. Online Daily Auctions

- 15.1. Viewing of all vehicles is available digitally through Auction Nation website 360 pictures. All vehicles can be viewed physically prior to auction at specified Auction Nation branch from Monday – Friday 08:00 AM – 16:30 PM. Excluding public holidays.
- 15.2. Once registered for an online auction you can place an Autobid on a desired lot prior to the sale of that lot. The Autobid amount placed is the maximum you would like to bid for that lot. The system will automatically bid on your behalf up until the amount placed. Bidding increments will be determined by the system.
- 15.3. Vehicles on sale subject to a reserve price are indicated by “STC Pending”. Once the reserve price has been met the “STC Pending” will change to “No STC” on screen indicating the reserve has been met.
- 15.4. The Online daily auctions are regulated by registered online buyers who determine the highest bid.
- 15.5. Should you have the highest bid on a lot that is marked “No STC” you will be invoiced for that lot once auction has ended. All invoices will be sent via email upon auction ending on that day. The sale is final, and cancelation of any invoice will lead to your deposit being forfeited as stated in 5.11.
- 15.6. If no bids are received during the closing period on a lot and reserve price has been met the vehicle will be invoiced to the highest bidder. If more bids are received during the closing period, the bidding time allowed will be extended to accommodate buyers and a new expiry time will be set.
- 15.7. All winning bids placed are final and cannot be retracted. All users are liable for any lots one through placing the winning bid on the lot and cancelation will result in the users deposit being forfeited.
- 15.8. Our system will automatically not allow any buyer to bid against themselves, even if initial bid is under reserve price.

- 15.9. In order to register for an Online auction: SA citizens must be in position of a valid ID, drivers license and proof of address not older than three months. Foreign Nationals must be in possession of a valid Passport, Traffic register and proof of address not older than three months. By law you cannot register on a Passport alone. All participants will be required to register online and have an active deposit in order to join the online auction. If a user does not have a valid deposit, a deposit can be made through our website, EFT or via card swipe at an Auction Nation branch. EFT deposits will need to reflect in our account before being activated on our system.
- 15.10. Profile login details must never be shared. In the event of profile login details being shared with another party the profile owner will be liable for all purchases made on the profile.
- 15.11. The bid amount placed is exclusive of fees and VAT and does not reflect the final amount that will be charged on invoice. The final price is calculated as follows: Bid + 5% (Buyers Fee) + R2700 (Document handling fee) +15% (VAT) = Total price.
- 15.12. Full payment must be made with 72 hours from the date of auction. All invoices not paid within 72 hours of date of auction will be charged storage fees as stated in 7.1
